Ulumul Hadith (Sciences of Hadith): An Introduction

Introduction:

When we are discussing the Hadith then our feeling is we are observing the Prophet (SAAS), his all works and approvals by our eye. So we must be careful about the Hadith of the Prophet (SAAS).

The definition of Ulumul Hadith (Sciences of Hadith):

(1) Literal meaning:

Ulumul Hadith (علوم الحديث), two words, firstly Ulumul means knowledge, and secondly, Hadith means news or report. Technically, refers to the branches of Hadith sciences, also known as Mustalahul Hadith (مصطلح الحديث) is the study of the terminologies of these branches of Hadith sciences.

These terms are also used interchangeably to refer to the various branches of the sciences of Hadith and their related terminologies.¹

(2) Terminological meaning:

1. Ulum al-Hadith, as it was more commonly referred to in classical works, or Mustalah al-Hadith (مصطلح الحديث) as it is more commonly known today is defined as: "...the knowledge of the principles and maxims (sayings) by which the conditions of chains of narrations and texts are known, in terms of acceptability and rejection".²
"العلم الذي يُعرف به أحوال الراوي والمروي من حيث القبول أو الرد"

2. Some definitions of Sciences of Hadith:³

- The science that investigates (examines) what was reported from the Prophet (SAAS) of sayings, actions, reports, or attributes, and what was reported from the Companions and their followers.
العلم الذي يبحث في ما ورد عن النبي -صلى الله عليه وسلم- من أقوال أو أفعال أو تقارير أو صفات، وما ورد عن الصحابة والتابعين.
- The science that concerns knowledge of the narrations is reported on the authority of the Prophet (SAAS) and the companions and followers.
العلم الذي يهتم بالإلمام بالروايات الواردة عن النبي -صلى الله عليه وسلم- وعن الصحابة والتابعين.
- Knowledge of accurate narrations and words from the Prophet (SAAS) and the Companions and followers.
العلم بضبط الروايات والألفاظ الواردة عن النبي -صلى الله عليه وسلم- وعن الصحابة والتابعين.
- The science that deals with the study of evidence; To classify hadiths into authentic, good, or weak hadiths.
العلم الذي يهتم بدراسة الأسانيد؛ لتصنيف الأحاديث إلى أحاديث صحيحة أو حسنة أو ضعيفة.
- The science that searches for the meaning of the hadith and the benefits derived from it.
العلم الذي يبحث عن مقصود الحديث الشريف والفوائد المستنبطة منه

Definition of Sunnah/ Hadith:

(1.a) Literal meaning of Hadith (Sunnah):

- Generally: Hadith means: Opposite of old (new item), speech, saying, news, report or narration. This term is a singular form, generally used by the Muslim writers for the collection of the traditions of Prophet Muhammad (SAAS).
- Corpus (amount) of the sayings or traditions of the Prophet Muhammad, revered by Muslims as a major source of religious law and moral guidance. It comprises many reports of varying length and authenticity. The individual reports are also called hadith (plural: hadiths). The word hadith is derived from the Arabic root h-d-th—signifying “to happen,” “to occur,” or “to come to pass”—and encompasses a range of literal meanings, including “conversation,” “discussion,” “speech,” and “small talk.” In English the term is translated variously as “report,” “saying,” or “tradition.” It is closely related to Sunnah (literally “established custom or habitual practice”), which in an Islamic context refers to the norms and practices affirmed or instituted by Muhammad.¹
- A narrative record of the sayings or customs of Muhammad and his companions. Or, the collective body of traditions relating to Muhammad and his companions.²
- A collection of traditions containing sayings of the prophet Muhammad which, with accounts of his daily practice (Sunnah), constitute the major source of guidance for Muslims apart (separately) from the Al-Qur’an.³
- The second source is the Prophet’s teachings. These teachings include his words, actions, and things he approved of. The Prophet’s teachings are called Sunna. The Sunna is found in texts called hadith. A hadith is a statement of the Prophet (SAAS) which was narrated by his companions and subsequently (then) narrated to the next generation until these sayings were compiled in hadith collections.⁴
- A traditional account of things said or done by Muhammad or his companions.⁵
- According to the Qur’an, hadith means ‘story’, ‘news’, ‘report’ or ‘narration’ and it is used in the Qur’an a number of times in these senses. In practice, the word hadith, to most people calling themselves Muslim, means the reported sayings and practices of the Prophet. The operative word here is ‘reported’. The Hadith literature was collected by word of mouth, about 250 years after the death of the Prophet. The Hadiths – “as the Hadith literature is commonly called – can be classified roughly in four categories: What the Prophet said, what the Prophet did, what the Prophet silently approved of, in others, and Hadiths which give descriptions of what the Prophet was like.”⁶

(1.b) Literal meaning of Sunnah (Hadith):

1. The word ‘Sunnah’ is an Arabic word, its literal meaning is: A clear path or a beaten (আঘাত করা) track (পদাঙ্ক). It also means an established course of conduct (আচরণ).
2. In pre-Islamic Arabia the Arabs used the word Sunnah about the ancient (প্রাচীন) and the continuous practice of the community, which they inherited from their forefathers.
3. It is said in ‘Al-Mawrid’ dictionary: Sunnah means: Rubric (নির্দেশ, বিধান), norm (আদর্শ), rule (শাসন, নিয়ম), law, custom (প্রথা), practice (অনুশীলন), usage (রীতি, রেওয়াজ), convention (প্রথাগত), tradition (ঐতিহ্য), mores (সামাজিক রীতিনীতি), line of conduct (আচরণ), mode (পদ্ধতি) of life, nature. Sunnahtur Rasul or ‘As-Sunnah an-Nabobiah’ means: Sunnah of the Prophet (SAAS).
4. It is said in ‘Al-Muzamul wasit’ dictionary: Al-Sunnah: Method (Tarikhah), behavior; either good (praised) or bad (dispraised). Sunnah Al-Allah: Rule of Allah upon His creation. Sunnah Al-Nabi: that, which is related to the Prophet (SAAS) from speeches actions, and approvals.
5. Another meaning: Sunnah means a system or path or an example. The term Sunnah and Hadith are the same in understanding, both are mean: Speeches of Prophet Muhammad (SAAS), his actions and approvals.
6. Using the word Sunnah: The word ‘Sunnah’ is used in three senses, these are: (1) Opposite of the Holy Qur’an: It is said in Hadith: “He will be Imam (leader) in Salah, who is the best in reciting the Holy Qur’an, if they are equal in it, so he will be Imam (leader) who has the best knowledge in Sunnah”. (2) Opposite of Fraid and Wazib (obligatory): It is called (supererogatory). (3) Opposite of Bidat (new creation in the religion): Like said: Group of Sunni, group of Badati.

(2) Terminological meaning of Sunnah/ Hadith:

1. Generally/ In the sense of Fiqh: The Sunnah in Islamic term: Praised (প্রশংসা) work in Deen (the religion of Islam) which are neither Farid (compulsory) nor Wazib (as like compulsory).
2. Its famous definition is: In the Islamic sense: This term implies (ইঙ্গিতে বুঝানো) Prophet Mohammad’s (SAAS) speeches, actions/ deeds, decisions and approvals. [in sense of Ilmul Hadith].
3. Famous jurisprudents said: Sunnah is Prophet Muhammad’s (SAAS) speeches, his works and his approvals.
4. A traditional account of things said or done by Muhammad or his companions.⁷

5. The second source is the Prophet's teachings. These teachings include his words, actions, and things he approved of. The Prophet's teachings are called Sunna. The Sunna is found in texts called ḥadīth. A ḥadīth is a statement of the Prophet (SAAS) which was narrated by his companions and subsequently (then) narrated to the next generation until these sayings were compiled in ḥadīth collections.¹
6. In religious senses: Which is narrated from Prophet Muhammad (SAAS), his companions, their companions, or one of the fallowed leaders in Islam are called Sunnah, like: Abu Bakr's Sunnah, Omar's Sunnah...etc. It is said in Hadith: "Follow my Sunnah and Sunnah of the pious 'Khulaf Al-Rasadun' (pious Khalifa).
7. Comprehensive/ In the term of Hadith: Which is narrated from the Prophet Muhammad (SAAS), from his speeches, his works, his approvals, his attributes, his natures, and his lifestyle before migration or after it all items are called Sunnah.
8. Anothehr comprehensive meaning of Hadith/sunnah: Speeches, works and approvals of Prophet Muhammad (SAAS), companions of Prophet {Sahaba (ra)}, and their followeres (Tabee/ Tabi).

Part # 02:

Differences among Qur'an, Sunnah and Hadith al-Qudsi

[1] Difference between Qur'an and Hadith/ Sunnah:

There are many differences between the Holy Qur'an and Hadith, among these:

1. Literal meaning: Qur'an is: The most readable or the most joined. And Hadith is: Saying, news, report or narration. And sunnah means: Norm, rule, system, behavior... etc.
2. Terminological meaning: Qur'an is: The Holy Qur'an is revealed on the messenger Muhammad (SAAS) wrote down in Mushaf, and has reached to us by 'Mutawatir'² and there is no doubt in it. On the other side, Hadith/ Sunnah is: This term implies (ইঙ্গিতে বুঝানো) Prophet Mohammad's (SAAS) speeches action/ deeds, decisions and approvals. [in sense of 'Ilmul Hadith'].
3. Generally: The Holy Qur'an is the speeches of Allah (SWT), but Hadith is directly speeches of Prophet Muhammad (SAAS) and speeches of Allah (SWT) indirectly; because Prophet Muhammad's (SAAS) all speeches were from Wahi (inspiration). The Holy Qur'an states: "Nor does he say (aught) of (his own) Desire. It is no less than inspiration sent down to him". [53:3-4], (وما ينطق عن الهوى. إن هو إلا وحي يوحى).
4. Word: Word of Qur'an is from Allah (SWT), but the word of Hadith is from Prophet Muhammad (SAAS) and his companions.
5. Miracle: The Holy Qur'an is a miracle of Prophet Muhammad (SAAS), but Hadith is not.
6. Source of Shariah: The Holy Qur'an is the first source of Shariah, but Hadith is the second source of it.
7. Protected: The Holy Qur'an is the most protected divine Holy book, there is no scope to insert anything in it, omit anything from it, to change anything in it. On the other hand, Hadith is generally not protected; but there are many ways to make difference between Sahih (pure) and Daif (weak) and Moudu (tainted).
8. Constitution: The Holy Qur'an is our constitution directly; but Hadith is not, it is from the source of Shariah.
9. Rewarded for reciting: We will be rewarded (fixed reward) by reciting the Holy Qur'an; but Sunnah is not (fixed reward); but we will be rewarded generally by reciting Hadith.
10. Tawatur: Not necessarily transmitted by Tawatur, except in some instances. (The Holy Qur'an must report as Tawatur, but Sunnah is not).
11. Books of Allah: The Holy Qur'an is the last divine Holy book, which is given to Prophet Muhammad (SAAS) by the messenger "Jibril", but Sunnah is not from divine books; but it is the speeches of Prophet Muhammad (SAAS).
12. Recital in the prayer: We are ordered to recite the Holy Qur'an in the prayer as Qirah, but there is no scope to recite the Sunnah in the prayer as Qirah.

[2] Difference between the Holy Qur'an and Hadith Qudsi:³

(A) Definition of Hadith Qudsi:

- Literal meaning: 'Qudsi' is an Arabic word, it means: Holy or pure.
- Terminological meaning: There are some reports from the Prophet Muhammad (SAAS) where he relates to the people what Allah has said (says) or did (does), but this information is not part of the Qur'an. Such a report is called Hadith Qudsi.
- Example:
 - a. "Abu Hurairah" reported that Allah's Messenger said: "Allah, Almighty and Exalted is He, said: If my servant likes to meet me, I like to meet him, and if he dislikes meet me, I dislike meet him".⁴
 - b. Another example, Abu Hurairah (ra) reported from Allah's Messenger (SAAS), he said, Allah (SWT) said: "Fasting is only for me, and I will give him reward for it. (Or I am its reward)", [Bukhari: 7054].

(B) Difference between the Holy Qur'an and Hadith Qudsi: While (পক্ষান্তরে) the common factor between Hadith Qudsi and the Holy Qur'an is that both contain (include) words from Allah which have been revealed on Muhammad, the main points of difference between Qur'an and Hadith Qudsi are as follows:

² - A 'Mutawatir' Hadith is one which is reported by such a large number of people that they cannot be expected to agree upon a lie all of them together.

1. In the Holy Qur'an, the precise (সংক্ষিপ্ত সার) wording is from Allah, while in the Hadith Qudsi the wording is given by the Prophet Muhammad (SAAS).
2. The Holy Qur'an has been brought to Muhammad only by the Angel "Gabriel", while Hadith Qudsi may also have been inspired otherwise, such as e. g. in a dream.
3. The Holy Qur'an is inimitable (অনুকরণীয়) and unique, but not so the Hadith Qudsi.
4. The Holy Qur'an is protected by Allah, but not so is the Hadith Qudsi.
5. The Holy Qur'an has been transmitted by numerous persons, (Tawatur) but the Hadith and Hadith Qudsi are often only by a few or even one individual.
6. There are many Hadith Qudsi which are Sahih, but also others Hasan, or even Da'if, while there is no doubt at all about any Ayah from the Qur'an.
7. Another point is that a Hadith Qudsi cannot be recited in prayer. (as Qirah), but Qur'an is recited in prayer (as Qirah).

[3] Difference between Sunnah and Hadith:

(1) Literal meaning:

- Sunnah means: Method (Tarikah), behavior; either good (praised) or bad (dispraised).
- Hadith means: Saying, news, report or narration. This term is a singular form, generally used by the Muslim writers for the collection of the traditions of Prophet Muhammad (SAAS).

(2) Terminological meaning:

- Sunnah means: In the Islamic sense: This term implies (ইঙ্গিতে বুঝানো) Prophet Mohammad's (SAAS) speeches, actions/ deeds, decisions and approvals. [in sense of 'Ilmul Hadith'].
- Hadith means: Technically, it means: in particular the report (verbal and written) about the Sunnah of the Prophet Muhammad (SAAS).

(3) Another difference:

- Both 'Sunnah' and 'Hadith' are the second sources of Shariah.
- To the 'Ulama of Hadith, Sunnah and Hadith refer (নির্দেশ করা) to all that is narrated by the Prophet (SAAS) his acts, his sayings and whatever he has tacitly (মৌন) approved, in addition, all the reports which describe his physical attribute and character.
- To the 'Ulama of jurisprudence (আইনতত্ত্ব), Sunnah refers to all that is narrated by the Prophet (SAAS) his acts, his sayings and whatever he has tacitly approved, but they excluded (বাদ দেওয়া) reports about physical attribute and character of the Prophet Mohammad (SAAS) from the definition of Sunnah.
- In the terminology of Usul- Al- fiqh (principles of jurisprudence), Sunnah denotes (অর্থ প্রকাশ করা) a saying, action, or approval related to the Prophet or issuing from him other than the Qur'an.
- Hadith means a story or a report, and so represents an account of what happened, whereas Sunnah means practice or custom (রীতি).

Part # 03:

The Position, importance* and authority of Sunnah in Islamic Shari'ah/ (Authenticity)*

[A] The position of Hadith in Islamic Shari'ah/ Sunnah or Hadith is the second source of Shari'ah:

The position of Sunnah:

The second main source of Islamic Shari'ah: The Hadith of the Prophet (SAAS) is the second main source of Shari'ah, the first main source of Shari'ah is the Holy Qur'an, other sources are secondary and related sources, like: Ijma, Quias, Istihsan, 'Urf, Masalehul Mursalah ...

Evidence:

1. From the Holy Qur'an: Allah (SWT) said: "So take what the Messenger assigns (gives) to you, and deny yourselves that which he withholds (forbid) from you...", [59:07]. (ما أتاكم الرسول فخذوه وما نهاكم عنه فانتهوا).
- In this Ayah Allah (SWT) orders us to accept which Prophet Muhammad (SAAS) received from Allah, he received from Him the Holy Qur'an and Hadith, so the position of Sunnah as the second main source of Shari'ah is proved by this Ayah. Like this Ayah, there are various Ayats in the Holy Qur'an that informed us regarding the position of the Sunnah.
2. From the Hadith: It is narrated by some companions of "Mu'aj bin Jabal" they said, when Prophet (SAAS) sent "Muaz bin Zabal" to 'Yaman' then he asked him: "How will you judge among them?" He replied: "By Book of Allah (Qur'an)". He asked: "If you will not find in Qur'an?" Then he replied: "By 'Sunnah' of Allah's Prophet (by Hadith)", then he asked: “If you will not find in Hadith? Then he replied: “I will judge by Iztihad from myself”. The Prophet (SAAS) became very glad...”¹.

- In this Hadith, it is declared clearly by “Mu‘aj Ibn Jabal” that, he will return to Sunnah to judge among them second time when the ruling of Shari‘ah is not found in the Holy Qur‘an, secondly; after hearing this reply from “Mu‘aj Ibn Jabal” Prophet (SAAS) approved it, so it is the second source of Shari‘ah- it is proved by approval of Prophet (SAAS). Thus, there are various Hadiths are informed that Sunnah is the second source of Shari‘ah.

3. Another evidence: Sunnah is the second source of Shari‘ah- it is proved by “Ijma” (Consensus of all Muslim scholars), works of Sahabah and Qiyas (to judge by intellect and conscience). Now a day, if we want to follow the directions of the Holy Qur‘an then its details are not found in it (Qur‘an), then we must follow Sunnah and another source of Shari‘ah.

[B] Importance of Hadith in Islamic Shari‘ah:

1. Sunnah is from inspiration (Wahi): Allah (SWT) has given His Prophet Muhammad (SWT) inspiration to guide us to the right way, the Sunnah is from these inspirations. Allah (SWT) said: “Nor does he speak out of desire, It is no less than inspiration sent down to him”, [53:3-4], (وما ينطق عن الهوى. إن هو إلا وحي يوحى).

2. The second source of Islamic Shari‘ah: The Hadith of the Prophet (SAAS) is the second source from which the teachings of Islam are drawn. It is narrated by some companions of “Mu‘aj bin Jabal” they said, when Prophet (SAAS) sent “Muaz bin Jabal” to ‘Yaman’ then he asked him: “How will you judge among them? He replied: “By Book of Allah (Qur‘an)”. He asked: “If you will not find in Qur‘an? Then he replied: “By ‘Sunnah’ of Allah’s Prophet (by Hadith)”, then he asked: “If you will not find in Hadith? Then he replied: “I will judge by Iztihad from myself”. The Prophet (SAAS) became very glad...”².

3. It is from two things whose Prophet (SAAS) left behind us: We have got the Sunnah as the inheritance. It is narrated by “Imam Malik” he informed us from Prophet Muhammad (SAAS), he said: “I have left behind you two things, you will never go astray until you will keep to those two things: Book of Allah (Qur‘an) and Sunnah of His messenger”, [Muatta].

عن مالك أنه بلغه أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: “تركت فيكم أمرين لن تضلوا ما تمسكتم بهما، كتاب الله وسنة رسوله” (الموطأ عن مالك).

4. It is applied by Prophet (SAAS) himself: The details were generally applied by the Prophet (SAAS) himself, either by showing in his practice how an injunction can be carried out or by explaining in words, For example, prayer, hajj ...etc. The Prophet (SAAS) has given us direction by saying: “Pray, as like you observe me”, and “Take from myself system of Hajj”.

5. It was essential in the lifetime of the Prophet (SAAS) and after His demise: The Sunnah or the Hadith of the Prophet (SAAS) was a thing whose need had been felt in his lifetime and much more after his death.

6. It is essential to the explanation of injunction of the Holy Qur‘an: The two most important institutions of Islam, for instance: Prayer and Zakah (almsgiving); yet when injunctions relating to both were delivered and they were repeatedly met both in Mecca and Medina Revelations, no details were supplied. “Keep up Prayer” is the Qur‘anic injunction, and it was the Prophet (SAAS) himself who by his action gave the details of the service.

“Pay alms” is again an injunction frequently repeated in the Holy Qur‘an, yet (তব্ব) it was the Prophet who gave the rules and regulations (বিধি, বিধান) for its payment and collection.

These are two examples, but since Islam covered the whole sphere of human activities, hundreds of points had to be explained by the Prophet (SAAS) by his example in actions and words. While on the other side, this was the pattern (নমুনা, আদর্শ) that every Muslim was required to follow. The Holy Qur‘an stated: “Verily in the Messenger of Allah you have a Good example to follow”, [33:21], (إِنَّكَ لَعَلَىٰ خُلُقٍ عَظِيمٍ).

7. It is an essential part for us: The man, therefore (then), who embraced (আলিঙ্গন করা) Islam, stood (stand) in need of both the Holy Qur‘an and Sunnah. The role of Sunnah is not limited to clarify (বিস্তার করা) the duties implied in general commandments (ধর্মের অনুশাসন) revealed in the Holy Qur‘an.

8. New obligations and prohibitions: Often the Sunnah establishes new obligations and prohibitions for which no clear reference can be found in the Holy Qur‘an. For example, the Inheritance system for grandfather is prescribed by Sunnah.

The Holy Qur‘an instituted (প্রতিষ্ঠিত করা) the ‘Fast’ during the month of ‘Ramadan’ as training in piety (ধার্মিকতা) and patience (সহিষ্ণু), and an opportunity (সুযোগ) to express the thankfulness for Divine blessings.

9. It is practical of the injunction of the Holy Qur‘an: The Sunnah is based on the verified (যাচাই কৃত) traditions (habit) concerning (about) the teachings, actions and tacit (নীর্ববে সম্পাদিত) approval of the Prophet (SAAS), and is justifiably (সমর্থনীয়) binding on all Muslims. Since the Holy Qur‘an gave the Prophet (SAAS) full power to enlighten (আলোকিত) men concerning (বিষয়ে) the Revelations (প্রকাশ), he was the best qualified to legislate (বিধিবদ্ধ) in matters requiring (require-চাওয়া, দাবি করা) clarification (explanation).

10. After the demise of the Prophet (SAAS) the Sunnah is our guideline to understand the Holy Qur‘an: In conclusion, Muhammad’s (SAAS) role was limited to receive the Revelations, learn it, write it down, transmit (broadcast), explain and apply it. Muhammad (SAAS) has gone, beyond (অতীত) or changed or modify the Holy Qur‘an in any way nor can any other believer.

The Prophet (SAAS) led us out of the darkness of ignorance into the light of truth. Lost and vicious (পাপপূর্ণ) as we were, he brought us back to the straight path of Islam.

So after discussing all the previous points; we can say that: Sunnah is an essential part of Islamic law.

1 - Tirmiji: 1327, Abu Daud: 3592

2 - Tirmiji: 1327, Abu Daud: 3592

Another Importance and Necessity of the Hadith/ Sunnah:

(1) To know the position of the Prophet (SAAS) (2) To understand the direction of the Prophet (SAAS) regarding the Shariah (3) To understand the lifestyle of Prophet (SAAS) (4) To know a clear explanation of the Holy Qur'an (5) To know additional new rulings from Prophet (SAAS) regarding Shariah (6) To know the method of Prophet and Sahabah regarding Shariah which is used in both parts of Makka and Medina (7) To follow Prophet (SAAS) and his way (8) To become closer of Prophet and get recommendation of Prophet on the Day of Judgment.

[C] Authority of Sunnah in Islamic Shari'ah:

The Sunnah is the second source of Islamic Shariah, the authority of Sunnah is proved by the Holy Qur'an, Sunnah and 'Izma (opinion of the majority of Muslim scholars), these are:

(1) Authority of Sunnah is proved by Qur'an:

There are many Ayah discussing the authority of Sunnah, like:

1. Allah (SWT) said: "So take what the Messenger assigns (gives) to you, and deny yourselves that which he withholds (forbid) from you...", [59:07]. (ما أتاكم الرسول فخذوه وما نهاكم عنه فانتهوا).

- In this Ayah He orders us to accept which Prophet Muhammad (SAAS) got from Allah, he got from Him the Holy Qur'an and Hadith, so we must accept those two sources of Shariah.

2. Allah (SWT) said: "Say, obey Allah and the Messenger; that you may obtain mercy", [03:132], (قل أطيعوا الله (والرسول لعلكم ترحمون)).

- In this Ayah Allah (SWT) orders us to follow Prophet Mohammad (SAAS) to get success in life, the demand of the Prophet's (SAAS) following is to accept his the speeches and works that are discussed in Sunnah.

3. Allah (SWT) said: "Say: 'Obey Allah and His Messenger': But if they turn back, Allah loves not those who reject Faith", [03:32], (قل أطيعوا الله والرسول فإن تولوا فإن الله لا يحب الكافرين).

- In this Ayah Allah (SWT) orders us to follow Him and His Messenger Mohammad (SAAS), and this is Sunnah, so who rejects it; it is considered from the work of infidel, and all-time He dislikes it.

4. Allah (SWT) said: "Say: 'If you love Allah, Follow me: Allah will love you and forgive you your sins: For Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful'", [03:31]. (قل إن كنتم تحبون الله فاتبعوني يحببكم الله ويغفر لكم ذنوبكم والله غفور رحيم).

- In this Ayah Allah (SWT) ordered us to follow the Prophet (SAAS) to get His love, so following Him is following Sunnah.

5. Allah (SWT) said: "O you who believe! Obey Allah, and obey the Messenger, and those charged with authority among you. If you differ in anything among yourselves, refer it to Allah and His Messenger, if you do believe in Allah and the Last Day: That is the best and most suitable for final determination", [04:59].

(يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا أَطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا الرَّسُولَ وَأُولِي الْأَمْرِ مِنْكُمْ فَإِنْ تَنَازَعْتُمْ فِي شَيْءٍ فَرُدُّوهُ إِلَى اللَّهِ وَالرَّسُولِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ تُؤْمِنُونَ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ ذَلِكَ خَيْرٌ وَأَحْسَنُ تَأْوِيلًا).

- In this Ayah Allah (SWT) orders us to follow Him, His apostle (Messenger) and our leader in general time; but in the time of quarrel we must return to Allah and His Messenger, and these are the Holy Qur'an and Sunnah.

6. Allah (SWT) said: "Nor does he speak out of desire, It is no less than inspiration sent down to him", [53:3-4], (وما ينطق عن الهوى. إن هو إلا وحي يوحى).

- In this Ayah He declared that, Prophet's (SAAS) all speeches are from inspiration, either the Holy Qur'an or Sunnah.

7. Allah (SWT) said: "We have sent down unto thee (also) (Jikr) the Message; that thou mayest explain clearly to men what is sent for them, and that they may give thought", [16:44].

(وأنزلنا إليك الذكر لتبين للناس ما نزل إليهم ولعلهم يتفكرون)

- In this Ayah Allah (SWT) declares that, He has given the Prophet Mohammad (SAAS) the Jikr (Sunnah) to explain clearly to men. According to the statement of Hadith, the explanation of the word Jikr is Sunnah.

8. Allah (SWT) said: "But no, by the Lord, they can have no (real) Faith, until they make thee judge in all disputes between them, and find in their souls no resistance against Thy decisions, but accept them with the fullest conviction", [04:65]. (فلا وربك لا يؤمنون حتى يحكموك فيما شجر بينهم ثم لا يجدوا في أنفسهم حرجاً مما قضيت ويسلموا تسليماً).

- In this Ayah Allah (SWT) order us to accept the Prophet (SAAS) as a Judge in our all disputer, and accept His decision without any fail, and His decision is the Sunnah.

9. Allah (SWT) said: "...therefore let those beware (সতর্ক করা) who go against His order lest a trial (পরীক্ষা) afflict (ব্যথা দেওয়া) them or there befall (কাহারো ভাগ্যে ঘটা) them a painful chastisement (সংশোধন; শাসন)", [24:63], (... فَلْيَحْذَرِ الَّذِينَ يُخَالِفُونَ عَنْ أَمْرِهِ أَنْ تُصِيبَهُمْ فِتْنَةٌ أَوْ يُصِيبَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ).

- In this Ayah Allah (SWT) appalled (আতঙ্কিত করা) to who deny Prophet's (SAAS) direction, so we must follow the Sunnah.

So all these verses proved the authority of Sunnah, so this is from the source of Shariah, and there is no scope to deny it as the second source of Islamic Law.

(2) Authority of Sunnah is proved by Hadith:

1. It is said in 'Bukhari, narrated by "Abu Hurirah", he informed us from Prophet Mohammad (SAAS), he said: "Who follows me, he follows Allah; and who denies me, he denies Allah; and who follows the leader, he follows me, and who denies the leader, he denies me", [Bukhari: 2793].

"من أطاعني فقد أطاع الله ومن عصاني فقد عصى الله ومن بطع الأمير فقد أطاعني ومن يعص الأمير فقد عصاني"

- This Hadith teaches us that to follow the Prophet (SAAS) is essential for following Allah, so we must follow Sunnah to get Allah's satisfaction.

2. It is said in 'Musnad-e-Ahmad', narrated by "Mekdam ibn-e- Madi-Karb", he informed us, Prophet Mohammad (SAAS) said: "behold, I have been given the Book and as like it with it, behold, I have been given the Holy Qur'an and as like it with it", [Ahmad: 17213]. "ألا اني أوتيت الكتاب ومثله معه الا اني أوتيت القرآن ومثله معه".

- This Hadith teaches us that, the Prophet (SAAS) has been given as like Qur'an, and this is Sunnah.

3. The Sunnah is from two things whose Prophet (SAAS) left behind us: It is narrated by Imam Malik who informed us from Prophet Muhammad (SAAS), he said: "I have left behind you two things, you will never go astray until you will keep to those two things: Book of Allah (Qur'an) and Sunnah of His messenger", [Muatta].

عن مالك أنه بلغه أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: "تركتم فيكم أمرين لن تضلوا ما تمسكتم بهما، كتاب الله وسنة رسوله" (الموطأ عن مالك).

- This Hadith proved that, the Sunnah is from two things whose Prophet Muhammad (SAAS) left behind us, so it is from the source of Shariah.

4. The demand of Prophet Muhammad (SAAS) from us to follow him and his companions' Sunnah. It is said in Hadith: "You must follow my Sunnah and Sunnah of my pious representatives". عليكم بسنتي وسنة الخلفاء الراشدين "المهديين".

- In this Hadith, it is declared that Sunnah is from the source of shariah.

5. It is narrated by some companions of "Mu'aj bin jabal" they said, when Prophet (SAAS) sent "Muaz bin Zabal" to 'Yaman' then he asked him: "How will you judge among them? He replied: "By Book of Allah (Qur'an)". He asked: "If you will not find in Qur'an? Then he replied: "By 'Sunnah' of Allah's Prophet (by Hadith)", then he asked: "If you will not find in Hadith? Then he replied: "I will judge by Iztihad from my self". Then Prophet (SAAS) became very glad...""¹.

- This Hadith teaches us to follow Prophet's (SAAS) and his companions' Sunnah, so it is from the source of Shariah.

(3) Authority of Sunnah is proved by 'Izma: The majority of Muslim scholars said about the authority of Sunnah, so there is no scope to deny the Sunnah as an authority.

(4) Authority of Sunnah is proved by Qiyas: When the authority of Sunnah is proved by 'the Holy Qur'an', 'Sunnah' and 'Izma'; then there is no scope to deny this as the source of 'Shariah', so it is proved by our intellect ('Aql) and conscience (Tamyiz).

(5) Authority of Sunnah is proved by works of Sahabah: It was the practice of Sahabah (Companions of Prophet) to accept the Sunnah as the second source of Shari'ah; as it is declared clearly by "Mu'aj Ibn Jabal" to judge by Qur'an if he will not find direction in Qur'an, and Prophet (SAAS) approved it as the second source of Shari'ah. Like "Mu'aj Ibn Jabal" all Sahabah (Companions of Prophet) used to give priority to the Sunnah as the second source of Shari'ah.

[D] Authenticity of Sunnah in Islamic Shari'ah:

1. Sunnah is from inspiration (Wahi): Allah (SWT) has given His Prophet Muhammad (SWT) inspiration to guide us to the right way; the Sunnah is from these inspirations.
2. Sunnah is the second source of Shari'ah: It is proved by various Ayath (veers) of the Holy Qur'an, various Sunnahs as well as other sources of Shari'ah; like: Ijma, Qiyas and works of Sahabas. (As it is mentioned previously).
3. It is from two things whose Prophet (SAAS) left behind us: We have got the Sunnah as the inheritance.
4. Pure Sunnah is preserved in its original text; original form: Now a day all pure Sunnahs are preserved in their original text; original form.
5. Sunnahs' translation is in their original form: We have the main text of Sunnahs, for this reason, their translation is preserved in their original form.
6. Sunnahs are for the whole mankind: Like the Qur'an, the Sunnahs address all humankind; not for a certain duration, certain community... and so on.
7. Sunnahs are protected: There are some authentic hadiths, some good hadiths and some are weak hadiths even some are fabricated hadiths. So, maximum hadiths are classified as Sahih (pure) and Daif (weak) and Moudu (tainted).
8. Preservation of Sunnah by the special way: Sunnahs are preserved by Sahabas {companies of Prophet (SAAS)} under the supervision of Prophet (SAAS), there was a particular group to record the Sunnah during the lifetime of Prophet (SAAS), though this system was: Mainly memorizing and secondly writing as well as another way.
9. Sunnah is uttered by Al-Amin (SAAS): It is known clearly that: Sunnah is the speeches, works and approvals of the person who is declared by 'Arab as Al-Amin (believer, faithful), so all of his the speeches are authentic.
10. Our duty is to (We must or we have to) confirm the source and authenticity of Sunnah: Prophet (SAAS) encouraged us to verify the source of Sunnah, and he informed us that, a cruelty punishment is waiting for those who say any lie on behalf Prophet (SAAS) by saying: "Whoever invents a lie and attributes it to me intentionally. Let him prepare his seat in the Fire".

Conclusion: After discussing all these documents and references, it is proved that, the Sunnah is from the source of Islamic Shariah, its authority and authenticity are proved by Qur'an, Hadith, Izma, Qiyas, works of Sahabah as well as our logic. So we must take and respect it as the second source of Islamic Shariah.

[1] Collection (সংগ্রহ) Compilation (সঙ্কলন) & Preservation of Hadith:

There are three stages of collection compilation and preservation of Hadith, they are:

(1) During the lifetime of the Prophet (SAAS): Unlike the Holy Qur'an, which was recorded during the lifetime of Prophet Mohammad (SAAS), the Hadith was recorded long after his death. The writing of Hadith was restricted during the lifetime of Prophet Mohammad (SAAS). The reason was the possibility of confusion or mixing the Holy Qur'an with the Hadith.

(a) Memorizing: In this time the main system of collection and compilation of Hadith was by memorizing, regarding this view Prophet Mohammad (SAAS) said: "May Allah bestow vigor (making the face bright) to a person who hears my saying and learns it by heart and then conveys it to others exactly as he hears it; because sometimes a Missionary is better than a Listener".

"نضر الله عبدا سمع مقالتي فوعاها ثم أداها كما سمع، فرب مبلغ أوعى من السامع".

(b) Narrating: The second system was by narrating it to another, whenever they came to know of a new Sunnah, they used to narrate it to others. Thus, all the companions would tell each other what they learned from the Holy Prophet (SAAS). He said: "Convey to others on my behalf, even though it be a single verse", [Bukhari: 3274], "بلغوا عني ولو آية". In another Hadith: "Those present should convey (my Sunnah) to those absent", [Bukhari: 1652], "فليبلغ الشاهد الغائب".

(c) Writing: Another system was writing, it was restricted during the lifetime of Prophet Mohammad (SAAS), for the possibility of confusion or mixing the Holy Qur'an with the Hadith; but he had permitted for some companions specially, For example, "Rafi ibn Khadij" (Ra), the famous companion of the Holy Prophet (SAAS), he said: "I said to the Holy Prophet (SAAS) [that], we hear from you many things, should we write them down?" He replied: "You may write down, there is no harm", [Muzamul Kabir: 4410], "اكتبوا ولا حرج". Another companion was "Abu Shah", after the victory of 'Makkah', the Prophet (SAAS) stood up for spiking, ... then "Abu Shah" stood up and said: "Write down for me", then he ordered his companions: "Write down for 'Abu Shah'", [Bukhari: 2302], "اكتبوا لأبي شاه".

(d) Discussing: Another system was by discussing and imparting: They discussed Hadith of the Prophet (SAAS) among them and preached these to another after receiving these from Prophet (SAAS).

(e) Practising: Another system was practice: Finally, they practiced Hadith in their practical life.

(2) During the time of 'Khulafa' Ar-Rashidin: After the death of Prophet Muhammad (SAAS), the Ahadith (pl. of Hadith) was passed among people by word of mouth and memory. The Hadith continued to be transmitted orally among people during the lifetime of the four rightly guided Khalifahs (Al-Khulafa Ar-Rashidun). At this time there are some preparations to collect Hadith in a single shape; so the first, second and fourth Khaliph {Abu Bakr, 'Umar and Ali (rd)} had tried to collect the separate books; but they had not completed it for the statement of Prophet (SAAS): "Whoever deliberately attributes a lie to me, he should prepare his seat at the fire". [من كذب علي متعمدا فيتبوأ مقعده من النار], so they destroyed their collection.

(3) During the time of 'Khalifah "Umar ibn Abdul Aziz": During the 'Umyyah period, the 'Khalifah "Umar ibn Abdul Aziz" ordered his governor in 'Medina' specially and other cities generally to collect the Hadiths and copy them. The 'Ulama' who already felt the need for this noble task, engaged in compiling, from his official order: "Seek Prophet's (SAAS) Hadith and collect it". "انظروا حديث رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم فأجمعوه".

a. Compilation of Sunnah in a separate book: The compilation of Hadith started in the early part of the second century (A. H). Among the notable book of Hadith compiled during that period was 'Al-Muwatta' of "Imam Malik".

b. Famous collection and compilation of books of Hadith: After the collection and compilation of "Imam Makik", the process of collecting Hadith continued, but the Hadith was not properly arranged under various chapters categorized based on (on the basis of) the subject. Later, "Imam Bukhari" and "Muslim" accomplished (গুণাবিত) this task in a superb (চমৎকার) way. Thus the 'Sahih Al-Bukhari' and 'Sahih Muslim' known as 'Sahihain' were compiled. These two compilations rank next to the Holy Qur'an for their authenticity and deserve (যোগ্য হওয়া) universal respect. They included only authentic Hadith. After that, another collection and compilation named 'Sunan-e-Abi Dawud', 'Sunan-e-Tirmidhi', 'Sunan-e-Nasai' and 'Sunan-e-ibn-Majah' have been completed in this time.

[2] Way of Preservation of Sunnah/ Different ways of Hadith preservation:

1. Memorizing: First of all, the companions of the Holy Prophet (SAAS) used to learn Hadith by heart. The Holy Prophet (SAAS) said: "May Allah bestow (দান করা) vigor (energy-তেজ) to a person who hears my saying and learns it by heart and then conveys it to others exactly as he hears it; because sometimes a Missionary is better than a Listener", "نضر الله عبدا سمع مقالتي فوعاها ثم أداها كما سمع، فرب مبلغ أوعى من السامع".

The companions of the Holy Prophet (SAAS) were eager (উৎসুক) to follow this Hadith and used to devote (উৎসর্গ করা) considerable (গণ্যমান্য) time to committing Hadith to their memories. A large number of them left their homes and began to live in the Mosque of the Holy Prophet (SAAS) so that they may hear the Hadith directly from the mouth of the Holy Prophet (SAAS). They spent all their time exclusively (fully) in securing (সংগ্রহ করা, অর্জন করা) the Hadith in their hearts. They are called 'Ashab as-Suffah'.

The Arabs had such strong memories that they would easily memorize hundreds of verses of their poetry. Nearly all of them knew by heart detailed pedigrees (বংশানুক্রম) of not only themselves, but also of their horses and camels. Even their children had enough knowledge of the pedigrees of different tribes. "Hammad" is a famous narrator of Arab poetry. It is reported that he knew by heart one hundred long poems for each letter of the alphabet, meaning thereby that he knew three thousand and thirty-eight long poems.¹

2. Discussing: The second method of preservation of Hadith was by mutual (পরস্পরগত) discussion held by the companions of the Holy Prophet (SAAS). Whenever they came to know of a new Sunnah, they used to narrate it to others. Thus, all the companions would tell each other what they had learned from the Holy Prophet (SAAS). This was to comply (সম্মত হওয়া) with the specific direction given by the Holy Prophet (SAAS) in this respect. There are some Hadiths to this effect (ফল): "Those present should convey (my Sunnah) to those absent", [Bukhari: 1652], "فليبلغ الشاهد الغائب". In another Hadith: "Convey to others on my behalf (আনুকূল্য), even though it be a single verse", [Bukhari: 3274], "بلغوا عني ولو آية".

In another Hadith: "May Allah grants vigor (force) to a person who listens to my saying and learns it by heart until he conveys it to others", [Tirmiji, Abu Dawud]. "نضر الله امرأ سمع منا حديثاً فحفظه حتى يبلغه غيره".

In another Hadith: "Whoever conceals knowledge which can be benefited from, will come on Doomsday bridled with a bridle (লাগাম) of fire", [Jami-ul-Bayan]. "من كتم علماً ينتفع به جاء يوم القيامة ملجماً بملجم من نار".

These frequent (many) discussions have played an important role in the preservation of the Sunnah. It was by the virtue of these discussions that the Hadith known only by some individuals was conveyed to others, and the circle of narrators was gradually enlarged (বাড়ানো).

3. Practising: The third way of preservation of the Sunnah was to bring it into practice. The knowledge of Sunnah was neither merely theoretical knowledge, nor the teaching of the Holy Prophet (SAAS) was merely a philosophical theory. The companions of the Prophet (SAAS) related this to practical life. The Holy Prophet (SAAS) did not confine himself to give lessons and sermons (ধর্মোপদেশ) only; he also trained (taught) his companions practically.

Whatever they learned from the Holy Prophet (SAAS) they spread (extend) no effort to bring it into actual practice. Each companion was so enthusiastic (keen-তীক্ষ্ণ) in practicing the Sunnah of the Holy Prophet (SAAS) that he tried his best to imitate (follow) even his habits.

Thus, constant (স্থির) practice by (in accordance with) the dictates of the Sunnah was another major factor that advanced the process of preserving the Sunnah and protected it from the foreign elements aiming at its distortion (বিকৃতি).

4. Writing: The fourth way of preserving Hadith was writing. Quite a large number of the companions of the Holy Prophet (SAAS) reduced (হ্রাস করা) the Hadith to writing after hearing them from the Holy Prophet (SAAS).

It is true that in the beginning, the Holy Prophet (SAAS) had forbidden some of his companions from writing anything other than the verses of the Holy Qur'an. However, this prohibition was not because the Hadith had no authoritative value, because the Holy Prophet (SAAS) had ordered them to narrate his Hadith orally. The full text of the relevant Hadith is as follows: "Do not write (what you hear other than Qur'an) from me, and whoever has written something (he heard) from me, he should erase (মুছিয়া ফেলা) it. Narrate to others (what you hear) from me; and whoever deliberately (intentionally) attributes a lie to me, he should prepare his seat (it the fire)", [Sahid Muslim: 3004]. "لا تكتبوا عني ومن كتب عني غير القرآن فليمحه حدثوا عني ولا حرج وم نكتب علي متعمدا فليتبوأ مقعده من النار".

The underlined phrase of the Hadith clarifies that prohibition for writing 'Hadith' was not on account of negating its authority. The actual reason was that at the beginning of the revelation of the Holy Qur'an, the companions of the Holy Prophet (SAAS) were not fully familiar with the Qur'anic style, nor was the Holy Qur'an compiled in a separate book.

In those days some companions began to write the Hadith along with the Qur'anic text. Some explanations of the Holy Qur'an given by the Holy Prophet (SAAS) were written by some of them mixed with the Qur'anic verses without any distinction between the two. It was therefore, feared that it would lead to confuse the Qur'anic text with the Hadith.

For these reasons, the Holy Prophet (SAAS) directed his companions to abstain (বিরত হওয়া) from writing the Hadith and to confine (সীমাবদ্ধতা করা) their preservation (সংরক্ষণ) to the first three ways which were equally reliable as discussed earlier. But all this was in the earlier period of his Prophethood. When the companions became fully conversant (অবগত) with the style of the Holy Qur'an and writing paper became available, this transitory (ক্ষণস্থায়ী) measure (পরিমাণ) of precaution (পূর্ব হইতে সাবধানতা) was taken back; because the danger of confusion between the Holy Qur'an and the Hadith no longer existed.

At this stage, the Holy Prophet (SAAS) himself directed his companions to write down the Hadith. Some of his instructions in this respect are quoted below:

1- One companion from the 'Ansar' complained to the Holy Prophet (SAAS) that he hears from him some Hadith, but he sometimes forgets them. The Holy Prophet (SAAS) said: "Seek help from your right hand, and pointed out to a writing", [Jaimi Tirmidhi: 2666], "استعن بيمينك وأمراً بيده للخط".

2- "Rafi ibn Khadij" (Ra), the famous companion of the Holy Prophet (SAAS) says: "I said to the Holy Prophet (SAAS) [that] we hear from you many things, should we write these down?" He replied: "You may write, there is no harm", [Muzamul Kabir: 4410]. "اكتبوا ولا حرج".

3- After the victory of 'Makkah', the Prophet (SAAS) stood up for speaking, ... then "Abu Shah" stood up and said: Write down from me, then he ordered His companions: "Write down for "Abu Shah"", [Bukhari: 2302].

عن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال لما فتح الله على رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم مكة، قام في الناس فحمد الله وأثنى عليه ثم قال: ... فقام أبو شاه رجل من أهل اليمن فقال اكتبوا لي يا رسول الله، فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم اكتبوا لأبي شاه".

Additional information:

- According to the statement of some Muslim Scholars: The first collection of Hadith is: “As-Sohifa As-Sadeka” of Abdullah Ibn `Amar Ibnul `Aas (ra), it contains about one thousand hadith (during the lifetime of the Prophet).
- During the time of `Uman bin Abdul Aziz (rh): Muhammad Ibn Shihab Az-Zuhuri; it was without subject matters.
- Then Small collections:
 - In Madina: Abu Bakar Ibn Hajam, Sa`id Ibn Abi Aruba, Ar-Rabi`, Imam Malik;
 - In Makkah: Ibn Zuriz and Ibn Ishaque;
 - In Basra: Hammad;
 - In Kufa: Sufian As-Sauri;
 - In Sham: Al-Awjai`

Then Musnad (Various Hadiths of same Sahaba); like: Ahamd, Musaddad, Ishaque Ibn Rahwai.... .

Then Big collections: Six famous Books of Hadith, and another collection.

Chapter # 08

Explanation of some important terms of Sunnah, the classification of Hadith, and fabrication in Hadith:

- (1) Explanation of some important terms of Sunnah: Isnad/Sanad, Matn, Rawee and Riwayah, Al-Jame', Al-Musnad, Al-Sahih, Al-Sunan, Sahihayn, Muttafaqun 'Alayh, Al-kutub As-Sittah...etc.
- (2) The classification of Hadith: (a) According to the reference to a particular authority (b) According to the links in the Isnad (c) According to the number of narrators involved in each stage of the Isnad (d) According to the reliability and memory of the narrator.
- (3) Fabrication in Hadith: (a) Definition of Fabrication (b) Causes and consequence of fabrication (c) Some examples of commonly used fabricated Hadith in our society.

Part # 01:

The explanation of some important terms of Sunnah: Isnad/ Sanad, Matn, Rawee and Riwaeh, Al-Jame', Al-Musnad, Al-Sahih, Al-Sunan, Sahihain, Muttafaqun 'Alih, Al-Kutub As-Sittah...etc.

There are some important terms of Sunnah, from these:

[A] Which are related to Hadith directly:

(1) Sanad/ Isnad: Sanad is the chain of reporters. Example: The very first Hadith in 'Sahih Al-Bukhari' is as follows: Al-Bukhari----- Al Humaidi ('Abdullah bin Al-Zubair)-----Sufyan ----- Yahaya bin Said Al-Ansari----- Muhammad bin Ibrahim Al-Taymi-----Alqamah bin Waqqas al Laithi, who said: I heard Umar bin Al-Khattab (ra) saying while on the pulpit (المنبّر), I heard Allah's Messenger said: "The reward of deeds depends on the intentions...", [Bukhari]. "إنما الأعمال بالنيات" In this Hadith, the chain of narrators from Bukhari ----- Al Humaidi ('Abdullah bin Al-Zubair) ----- to "Umar bin Al-Khattab" is Sanad.

(2) Musnad: If the chain of Hadith is linked to Prophet Muhammad (SAAS) is called 'Musnad', and this work is called 'Isnad'. Example: Previous Hadith is Musnad; because it is linked to Prophet (SAAS) without missing, and the last person of this Sanad is Prophet. So this Hadith is a Musnad.

(3) Matan: main text of Hadith. Example: It is narrated by "Umar bin Al-Khattab", he said: I heard Prophet (SAAS) saying: "The reward of deeds depends on the intentions...", "إنما الأعمال بالنيات", [Bukhari]. In this Hadith, the main report of Hadith ("The reward of deeds depends on the intentions...") is Matan.

(4) Rawee: Individually reporters of Hadith. Example: In the previous example (1), each narrator is individually Rawee and all are collectively Rw-Waat.

(5) Riyaeh: The narration of Hadith is called Riyaeh.

(6) Taraf: In which 'Book of Hadith' this Hadith is mentioned. For example, Bukhari, Muslim...etc.

(7) Six Books of famous Hadith (Al-Kutub As-Sittah): Bukhari, Muslim, Abu-Dawud, Tirmiji, Nasai and Ibn Madha. Or 'Muattah of Imam Malik' instead of Ibn Madha. [There is a term which is used in sub-continent as wrong, that is: Shihah Sittah (Six Books of pure Hadith), this term is not right; because; these Books contain Shahi, Hasan as well as Daif Hadith; except Bukhari and Muslim, so it is better to use Al-Kutub As-Sittah instead of Shihah Sittah].

(8) Hadith Al-Qudsi: There are some reports from the Prophet Muhammad (SAAS) where he relates to the people what Allah (SWT) said (says) or did (does), but this information is not part of the Holy Qur'an. Such a report is called Hadith Qudsi. "Abu Hurairah" reported from Allah's Messenger (SAAS), he said, Allah (SWT) said: "Fasting is only for me, and I will give him reward for it. (Or I am its reward)", [Bukhari: 7054]. عز وجل الصوم عن أبي هريرة عن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: يقول الله

(9) Muttafakun 'Alaihi: Same Hadith which is narrated by same 'Sahabi' {Companions of Prophet (SAAS)} and mentioned in both book of Bukhari and Muslim; like: Prophet (SAAS) saying: "The reward of deeds depends on the intentions...", "إنما الأعمال بالنيات", [Bukhari and Muslim]. This Hadith is mentioned both of Imam Bukhari and Muslim (r) in their Books and narrated by the same Sahabi named Umar Bin Khattab (ra), so this Hadith is Muttafakun 'Alihi.

(10) Sahihain: It means two Books of pure Hadith, in Islamic terms; it contains two Books of pure Hadith, both Bukhari & Muslim. (Bukhari and Muslim these two Books of Hadith are termed Sahihain).

(11) Al-Jame': Generally, two Books of Hadith, both of the Bukhari and Tirmidhi are called Al-Jame. There are various (8) topics are contained in this term, like: Sirah (biography), Tafsir (explanation), Aqa'id (belief), Fitnah (trial), Adab (etiology), Ishtirat (signs of doomsday) and Manakib (History of warfare of Prophet). All these terms are found in Bukhari and Tirmidhi; for this reason, they are called Al-Jame. (Bukhari and Tirmidhi these two Books of Hadith are termed Al-Jame')

(12) Al-Sunan: Types Books of Hadith, these are more specific, either characterized by the topics treated to subject matter of the fiqh are called the Sunan {restricted to legal-liturgical (prayer) Hadiths}. It is designed according to the topic of Fiqah. There are famous four Books of Sunan, like: Sunan Abu-Dawud, Sunan At-Tirmiji, Sunan An-Nasai and Sunan Ibn Madha. (These four Books of Hadith are termed Al-Sunan, they are arranged according to Chapter of Fiqh)

[B] Which are related to kinds of Hadith:

(1) 'Kauli', 'Fa'li' and 'Taqriri' Hadith: 'Kauli': Sayings of the Prophet (SAAS), like: The Preopphet (SAAS) said.... 'Fa'li': Doings of the Prophet (SAAS), like: The Prophet (SAAS) done.... 'Taqriri': Silent approval of Prophet (SAAS), like: The Prophet (SAAS) approved.....

(2) Marfu (Elevated- উচ্চতর): A narration from the Prophet (SAAS) i.e. a reporter [whether a Companion, (their) Successor (উত্তরাধিকারী) or other] says: "The Messenger of Allah said." (قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم كذا).

For example, The very first Hadith in 'Sahih Al-Bukhari' is as follows: Al-Bukhari----- Al Humaidi ('Abdullah bin Al-Zubair)-----Sufyan ----- Yahaya bin Said Al-Ansari-----Muhammad bin Ibrahim Al-Taymi-----Alqamah bin Waqqas al Laithi, who said: I heard Umar bin Al-Khattab saying while on the pulpit (المنبّر), I heard Allah's Messenger said: "The reward of deeds depends on the intentions...", "إنما الأعمال بالنيات". In this example, the last person of the Sanad is Prophet (SAAS), so it is Marfu Hadith.

(3) Mauquf (Stopped, closed): A narration from a companion only i.e. his statement. For example, Bukhari reports in his Sahih in Kitab Al-Fara'id that "Abu Bakar", "Ibn Abbas" and "Ibn Al-Zubair" said: "The grandfather is (treated like) father", "الجد كالأب". In this example, the last person of the Sanad is a Sahabi (the companions of the Prophet), so it is Mauquf Hadith.

(4) Maqtu (cut off): A narration from a Successor. For example, Muslim reports in the Introduction to his 'Sahih' that "Ibn Sirin" Said: "This knowledge (i.e. Hadith) is the religion. So be careful from whom you take your religion", "إن هذه الأحاديث دين فانظروا ممن تأخذون دينكم". In this example, the last person of the Sanad is a Tabee' (the successor or companion of companions of the Prophet), so it is Maqtu' Hadith.

(5) Mutawatir: A Mutawatir Hadith is one that is reported by such a large number of people that they cannot be expected to agree upon a lie all of them together. For example, (1) Practices of the five daily prayers, Sawm, Zakha the Hajj and recitation of the Holy Qur'an. (2) Prophet Muhammad (SAAS) said: "Whoever invents a lie and attributes it to me intentionally. Let him prepare his seat in the Fire". "من كذب علي متعمداً فليتبوأ مقعده من النار"

(6) Ahad: Ahad Hadith is one, which is narrated by people whose number does not reach that of the Mutawatir case. Kinds of Ahad Hadith: Ahad is further classified into three types:

(a) Gharib (b) Aziz (c) Mash-hur.

(a) Gharib: A Hadith is termed Gharib (scarce-অপ্রচুর) when only a single reporter is found relating it at some stages of the Isnad. For example, The saying of the Prophet (SAAS): "Travel is a piece of punishment", [Bukhari] (السفر قطعة من العذاب) is 'Gharib'; the isnad' of this Hadith contains only one reporter in each stage, like: Malik-----Yahya bin Abi Salih-----Abu Hurairah-----the Prophet (SAAS).

(b) Ajij (rare, strong): If any stages in the Isnad, only two reporters are found to narrate the Hadith, it is termed 'Ajij' (rare, strong). For example, "Anas" reported that the messenger of Allah (SWT) said: "None of you (truly) believers until I become more beloved to him than his father, his son and all the people", [Bukhari: 15], "لا يؤمن أحدكم حتى أكون أحب إليه من والده وولده والناس أجمعين". The narrators of this Hadith are two in some stages, so it is Ajij Hadith.

(c) Mash-hur (famous): A Hadith which is reported by more than two reporters in each stage is known as 'Mashur' (famous). For example, Prophet Muhammad (SAAS) said: "We are the last but (will be) the foremost on the Day of Resurrection", [Bukhari: 836]. "نحن الآخرون السابقون يوم القيامة". The narrators of this Hadith are more than two in all stages, and not like the stander of Mutawatir Hadith, so it is Mash-hur Hadith.

(7) Sahih: A 'Sahih Hadith' is the one: (a) Which has a continuous Isnad (b) Made up of reporters of trustworthy (বিশ্বাসভাজন) memory from (c) Similar authorities (সত্যতা). And (d) Which is found to be free from any irregularities (i.e. in the text-শব্দ) or free from the rare report (e) Free from any defects (ত্রুটি-এলা) (i.e. in the Isnad).

(8) Hasan: A 'Hasan Hadith' is one, which excels (stand out-গুণে অতিক্রম করা) the 'Daif' but does not reach the standard of a 'Sahih Hadith'.

(9) Daif: A 'Daif Hadith', which fails to reach the status of 'Hasan' is called 'Daif'. Usually, the weakness is one of the discontinuities (বিচ্ছিন্নতা) in the Isnad, or one of the reporters having a disparaged (নিন্দা) character, such as due to his telling lies, excessive (অত্যধিক) mistakes, opposition to the narration of more reliable sources, involvement innovation (নতুন প্রবর্তিত বস্তু), or ambiguity (doubt) surrounding (চারিদিকে বেষ্টিত করা) his person.

(10) Maudu: Which connected to the Prophet Muhammad (SAAS) falsely and has no real connection to the Prophet (SAAS) and is not a speech of Prophet (SAAS).

(11) Shajj: The 'Shajj Hadith' is the Hadith that is narrated by a trustworthy narrator, but violates the trustworthy narrators.

(12) Munkar: If a narration that goes against another authentic Hadith is reported by a weak narrator, it is known as 'Munkar' (denounced- অভিযুক্ত).

Part # 02:

The classifications of Hadith and the rulings concerning the various kinds of Hadith:

(1) According to the reference to a particular authority (2) According to the links in the Isnad (3) According to the number of narrators involved in each stage of the Isnad (4) According to the reliability and memory of the narrator.

The classification of Hadith and the rulings concerning the various kinds of Hadith:

There are some important terms of Sunnah, from these:

[1] The classification of Hadith according to the 'reference to a particular authority:

Three types, such as: (1) Marfu` (2) Mauquf (3) Maqtu`.

(1) Marfu` (Elevated- উচ্চতর): A narration from the Prophet (SAAS) i.e. a reporter {whether a Companion, (their) Successor (উত্তরাধিকারী) or other} says: "The Messenger of Allah said." (قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم كذا).

For example, The very first Hadith in 'Sahih Al-Bukhari' is as follows: Al-Bukhari----- Al Humaidi ('Abdullah bin Al-Zubair)-----Sufyan ----- Yahaya bin Said Al-Ansari-----Muhammad bin Ibrahim Al-Taymi-----Alqamah bin Waqqas Al Laithi, who said: I heard Umar bin Al-Khattab saying while on the pulpit (المنبর), I heard Allah's Messenger said: "The reward of deeds depends on the intentions...", "... إنما الأعمال بالنيات ". This Hadith is Marfu`; because it is the speech of the Prophet (SAAS).

(2) Mauquf (Stopped, closed): A narration from a companion only i.e. his statement.

Example: 'Bukhari' reports in his 'Sahih' in 'Kitab Al-Faraid' that "Abu Bakar", "Ibn Abbas" and "Ibn Al-Zubair" said: "The grandfather is (treated like) father", "الجد كالأب". This Hadith is the speech of Sahabah. So it is Mauquf Hadith. It should be noted that, the certain expressions (অভিব্যক্তি; মুখের ভাব) used by a Companion generally render (দান করা, ভাগ্যকরা, অনুবাদ করা) a Hadith to be considered as being effectively (কার্যকর) 'Marfu' although it is 'Mauquf' on the face of it. e.g. the following: (a) "We were commanded to..." (b) "We were forbidden from..." (c) "We used to do..." (d) "It is from the Sunnah to..." (e) "It used to be said..."

x	S	T	TT	...

(3) Maqtu` (cut off): A narration from a Successor.

Example: Imam Muslim reports in the Introduction to his 'Sahih' that "Ibn Sirin" Said: "This knowledge (i.e. Hadith) is the religion. So be careful from whom you take your religion", "إن هذه الأحاديث دين فانظروا ممن تأخذون دينكم". This Hadith is the speech of the Successor (Tabi). So it is Maqtu` Hadith.

x	x	T	TT	...

[2] The classification of Hadith according to the links in the Isnad:

Five types, such as: (1) Musnad (2) Mursal (3) Munqati (4) Mudal (5) Muallaq.

(1) Musnad (supported): "Abu Bakr Al-Khatib" said: According to 'Ahl Al-Hadith', if the chain of Hadith is linked to Prophet Muhammad (SAAS) is called 'Musnad'.

-"Ibn Abd Al-Ba'r" said: A narration from the Prophet (SAAS), his Companion, and (their) Successor (উত্তরাধিকারী) or other. {Without any missing in the chain of reporters (Sanad)}.

Example: Either Muttasil: "Imam Malik- Nafi'- Ibn Umar-Prophet Muhammad (SAAS) said:".

(2) Mursal (hurried): If the link between the Successor ('Tabi') and the Prophet (SAAS) is missing, the Hadith is 'Mursal' (hurried).

Example: when a Successor says, "The Prophet (SAAS) said....", like: Imam Abu Hanifa (r) narrated by Prophet....

(3) Munqati' (broken): However, if a link anywhere before the Successor ('Tabi') (i.e. closer to the traditionist recording of the Hadith) is missing, the Hadith is Munqati (broken).

Example: Munqati: "Imam Malik-Juhri-Ibn Abbas-Prophet Muhammad (SAAS) said: ..."

(4) Mu'dal (perplexing): If the number of consecutive (repeated) missing reporters in the Isnad exceeds one (সীমা), the Isnad is Mu'dal (perplexing, confusing).

(5) Mu'allaq (hanging): If the reporter omits the whole isnad and quotes the Prophet (SAAS) directly (i.e. the link is missing at the beginning unlike the case with a Mursal Isnad), the Hadith is called Muallaq (hanging) sometimes it is known as 'Balaghah' (to reach).

Example: "Imam Malik" sometimes says in 'Al-Muwatta', "It reached me (Balaghah) that the Messenger of Allah said..."

[3] The classification of Hadith according to the 'number of reporters involved in each stage of the Isnad':

Two types, such as: (1) Mutawatir (2) Ahad: Ahad farder three types, like: (a) Gharib (b) Ajj (c) Mash-Hur.

(1) Mutawatir: A 'Mutawatir' Hadith is one that is reported by such a large number of people that they cannot be expected to agree upon a lie all of them together.

Examples: (1) Practice of the five daily prayers, Sawm, Zakha the Hajj and recitation of the Holy Qur'an. (2) Prophet Muhammad (SAAS) said: "Whoever invents a lie and attributes it to me intentionally; let him prepare his seat in the Fire". "من كذب علي متعمدا فليتبوأ مقعده من النار"

-----	----------	----------	-----------	-------------

(2) Ahad: Ahad Hadith is one, which is narrated by people whose number does not reach that of the 'Mutawatir' case.

-----	-----------	-----------	------------	-------------

Examples: Prophet (SAAS) said: "Seeking knowledge is obligatory for all Muslim". This Hadith is Ahad; because its narrators are not like Mutawatir stander; but less than Mutawatir.

Kinds of Ahad Hadith: Ahad is further classified into three types: (a) Gharib (b) Aziz (c) Mashur.

(a) Gharib: A Hadith is termed Gharib (scarce-অপ্রচুর) when only a single reporter is found relating it at some stage of the Isnad.

For example, The saying of the Prophet (SAAS): "Travel is a piece of punishment", [Bukhari] (السفر قطعة من العذاب) is 'Gharib'; the isnad of this Hadith contains only one reporter in each stage: Malik-----Yahya bin Abi Salih-----Abu Hurairah----- The Prophet (SAAS). [This Sanad is a unique Sanad, there is no Sanad for this Hadith except this Sanad].

P=1	S=1	T=2	TT=3	...= 4/5

(b) Ajj (rare, strong): If any stages in the Isnad, only two reporters are found to narrate the Hadith, It is termed 'Ajj' (rare, strong).

For example, "Anas" reported that the messenger of Allah said: "None of you (truly) become believers until I become more beloved to him than his father, his son and all the people", [Bukhari, Hadith no-15]. "لا يؤمن أحدكم حتى أكون أحب إليه". [There are two reporters in some stages of Sanad for this Hadith].

P=1	S=2	T=2	TT=2	...= 2
P=1	S=2	T=3	TT=4	...= 5

(c) Mash-Hur (famous): A Hadith which is reported by more than two reporters in each stage is known as 'Mashur' (famous).

Example: Prophet Muhammad (SAAS) said: "We are the last but (will be) the foremost on the Day of Resurrection", [Bukhari, Hadith no-836], "نحن الآخرون السابقون يوم القيامة". [There are more than two reporters in each stage of Sanad for this Hadith; but they are not as Mutawatir stander].

P=1	S=3	T=3	TT=3	... =3
P=1	S=gater than 2, less than 70 (3)	T=gater than 2, less than 70 (10)	TT=gater than 2, less than 70 (20)	... =gater than 2, less than 70 (30)

[4] The classification of Hadith according to the reliability of the reporters/ According to the reliability and memory of the reporters:

Three or four types, such as: (1) Sahih (2) Hasan (3) Daif + Some Muslim scholars added another type: (4) Maudu'

(1) Sahih: According to "Ibn Al-Salah": A 'Sahih Hadith' is the one, (a) Which has a continuous Isnad (b) Made up of reporters of trustworthy (বিশ্বাসভাজন) memory from (c) Similar (trustworthy) authorities (সত্যতা), and (d) Which is found to be free from any irregularities (i.e. in the text-শায) or rare report (e) Free from any defects (ত্রুটি-এলা) (i.e. in the Isnad).

The following grading (স্তর) is given for 'Sahih Hadith' only: (a) Those which are transmitted by both Al-Bukhari and Muslim. (b) Those which are transmitted by Al-Bukhari only. (c) Those which are transmitted by Muslim only. (d) Which agree with the requirements of both Al-Bukhari and Muslim (e) Which are agreed with the requirements of Al-Bukhari only. (f) Which agree with the requirements of Muslim only. (g) Those declared Sahih by other traditionalists (Scholars of Hadith).

Continuous Isnad	Trustworthy memory	Trustworthy authority	Free from irregularity	Free from defect	%
√	√	√	√	√	100%
√	√	√	√	√	100%

Example: Prophet Muhammad (SAAS) said: "Whoever invents a lie and attributes it to me intentionally; let him prepare his seat in the Fire". "من كذب علي متعمداً فليتبوأ مقعده من النار", [Bukhari]. All previous conditions are found in this Hadith, so it is a Sahih Hadith.

(2) Hasan: According to "Al-Jahabi": A 'Hasan Hadith' is one, which excels (stand out-গুণে অতিক্রম করা) the 'Daif' but does not reach the standard of a 'Sahih Hadith'.

- According to another: If all conditions of Shahi Hadith are found except the second condition, like: "Made up of reporters of trustworthy memory" is not found then it is called Hasan Hadith.

Continuous Isnad	Trustworthy memory	Trustworthy authority	Free from irregularity	Free from defect	%
√	√	√	√	√	100%
√	√	√	√	×	80%
√	√	√	×	×	60%
√	×	√	√	√	80%

Or,

√	×	√	√	√	80%

Example: Prophet Muhammad (SWT) said: "A single rider is a devil (শয়তান) (i.e. disobedient), two riders are two devils, but three makes a traveling party", "إن الواحد في السفر شيطان", and "Surely two ears are included in the head", "الأذنان من الرأس", (Means, during the time of ablution, it is obligatory to wipe two ears). All previous conditions are found in this Hadith (except one condition), so it is a Hasan Hadith.

(3) Daif: A Hadith, which fails to reach the status of 'Hasan' is 'Daif'. Usually, the weakness is one of discontinuity (বিচ্ছিন্নতা) in the Isnad, or one of the reporters having a disparaged (নিন্দা) character, such as due to his telling lies, excessive (অত্যধিক) mistakes, opposition to the narration of more reliable sources, involvement innovation (নতুন প্রবর্তিত বস্তু), or ambiguity (doubt) surrounding (চারিদিকে বেষ্টিত করা) his person.

Example: Prophet Muhammad (SAAS) said: "He who preserves forty Hadith (40) for my Ummah will be raised by Allah on the Day of Resurrection among the men of understanding".

"من حفظ على أمتي أربعين حديثاً فيما ينفعهم من أمر دينهم بعثت يوم القيامة من العلماء"

All previous conditions are not found in this Hadith, so it is a Daif Hadith.

Part # 03:

Fabrication in Hadith:

(a) Definition of Fabrication (b) Causes and consequence of fabrication (c) Some examples of commonly used fabricated Hadith in our society

Introduction: A fabricated hadith is not a hadith and it is not permissible to narrate it (without warning regarding fabricated Hadith). It is falsely liked with Prophet (SAAS). So we must avoid it.

[1] Definition of Fabricated (Mawdu') Hadith:

(a) Literal meaning:

- It is said in Al-Mawreed dictionary: Mawdu: Fabricated, invented, created, made-up, trumped-up, false, spurious (fake), and apocryphal (invented).
- Another Muslim scholar said: Mawdu 'is something that is attached.'¹

(b) Terminological meaning:

- 1- Which connected to the Prophet Muhammad (SAAS) falsely and has no real connection to the Prophet (SAAS) and is not a speech of the Prophet (SAAS).
 - 2- Technically it is a lie that is forged (fake) and falsely attributed to the Messenger of Allah (SAAS). In reality, it is not a hadith, it is only called so symbolically (characteristically).²
- Many times the statement may be that of a wise man or even a Sahabi which was wrongly attributed to the Messenger of Allah (SAAS). At other times it was intentionally fabricated and ascribed (attributed) to him (SAAS).³
- 3- A fabricated hadith is a hadith that is falsely ascribed (attributed) to the Prophet (SAAS) while in fact, he did not pronounce it; it is not permissible to narrate such hadiths.⁴ Most of the fabricated hadiths were introduced in Muslim literature by the fabricators themselves; they forged the statements and invented the isnad from their imagination (mind).⁵

[2] Causes and consequences of fabrication:

[A] Causes of fabrication/ Classification of fabricated Hadith:⁶ Causes of fabrication in Hadith are divided into two types/ The fabricated hadiths can be divided into two categories: (1) Intentionally fabricated hadith, which is called hadith Mawdu (invented or fabricated hadith), and (2) Unintentionally fabricated hadith, which is referred to as hadith Batil (invalid hadith).

{a} Causes of Intentional Fabrication: There are some causes of intentional fabrication, like: (1) The Zanadiqah (Heretics) (2) Political differences (3) Favor seekers (4) Storytellers (5) Human frailties (weakness) (6) Ignorant ascetics (7) Prejudice (Superstition) for One's Town, Race or Imam.

{b} Causes of un-intentional Fabrication: There are some causes of unintentional fabrication, like: (1) Novelty (অভিনব বস্তু) (2) Mistakes (3) Inexactness (approximate) (4) Indirect transmission (4) Failure to copy (6) Lack of qualification (7) Lost Books.

{a} Causes of Intentional Fabrication:

(1) The Zanadiqah (Heretics- প্রচলিত ধর্মমতের বিরুদ্ধবাদী): {الزندقة}: Firstly fabricated by them.

* Who are Zanadiqah:

- According to the statement of "Al-Ghazali": The term 'Zanadiqah' was defined as those who deny the validity of prophecy. "Al-Ghazali" divided the Zanadiqah into two: absolute Zanadiqah and specific Zanadiqah.
- (a) Absolute Zanadiqah is: Who deny the resurrection after death and the existence of the Creator of the world, and
- (b) Specific Zanadiqah: Who recognize the existence of the Creator of the world but deny knowledge of the details of that world.⁷
- According to the statement of "Al-Iraqi": In some sources, they are referred to as those who do not believe in any of the divine attributes of Allah (SWT).⁸
- According to the statement of "Lane": They are who believe in the two forces of Light and Darkness, or to one who does not believe in the world to come.⁹

* Zanadiqah & fabrication in Hadith:

- The zanadiqah flourished (grow) under various banners during early Islamic history. Their anti-Islamic attitude motivated them to forge (fake) some hadiths.
- According to some sources, the zanadiqah concocted (made up) about fourteen thousand (14,000) hadiths.¹⁰

* Evidence regarding fabricated by Zanadiqah:

"Muhammad Rashid Rida" mentioned that some scholars of Hadith said that when "Abdul-Karim ibn Abi Al-'Awaja" (عبد الكريم بن أبي العوaja) was to be executed (implement) {when Muhammad bin Suliman wanted to kill him for fabrication in Hadith} he said: "I fabricated four thousand hadiths in which I made the lawful prohibited and the prohibited permissible".¹¹ "والله لقد وضعت فيكم أربعة آلاف حديث، أحرم فيها الحلال، وأحل فيها الحرام ولقد فطرتكم في يوم صومكم وصومتمكم في يوم فطركم".

11- Ibn Al-Jawzi, Kitab Al-Mawdu'at, 1:37.

He (ʿAbdul-Karim) also said, “I had (or, I have a person who has) fabricated four thousand hadiths in which I had made many unlawful things lawful and vice versa”.¹ "أقرّ عندي رجل من الزنادقة أنه وضع أربعمئة حديث في تجول في أيدي الناس".¹

 Example of fabrication in hadith by Zanadiqah:

An example of this class of fabrication is the report “When Allah wanted to create Himself He created the horse first and let it gallop (run) till it sweated. Then He created Himself from its sweat”.

 Contribution of Muslim scholars to save Hadith against Zanadiqah:

By fabricating hadiths, the zanadiqah did a great damage to the history of Islam.²

But according to the statement of “Siddiqi”: The anti-Islamic motivation of the Zanadiqah does not see any harm in the forgery of hadiths by the Zanadiqah, as these hadiths were rejected by Muslims.³

(2) Political Differences: (الاختلاف السياسي): Firstly introduced by ‘Shiah’ in Hadiths of Fada’il (reward).

- Critical stages after Uthman: Islamic history passed a very critical stage after the death of the third caliph, ‘Uthman. Differences and battles between ‘Ali and Mu’awiyah (r.a) were the reasons behind the emergence (coming out) of several religious sects (division), especially the Shiah and the Khawarij.

- The condition of some groups regarding fabrication in Hadith in favour them: Many hadiths, which might be termed as the fada'il type, in favor of ‘Ali and the House of the Prophet, Ahl Al-Bayt, came from the Shiah.⁴ Masih ibn Jahm narrates the incident (event) of an innovator [mubtadi] who, when he repented (be sorry), taking an oath, said: “We had fabricated many baseless (unjustified, unfounded) narrations which you narrated by us, and we used to consider leading you astray to be a meritorious (admirable) act”.⁵

- The condition of Shiah and Bakriyyah regarding fabrication in Hadith related to fada'il (reward): Lies were introduced in Hadith on merits (fada'il) originally by the Shi'ah. They, in the beginning, fabricated many Hadiths in favor of their man, motivated by enmity (enemy) towards their opponents. When the Bakriyyah (those favoring Abu Bakr) found (establish); out what the Shi'ah had done, they in turn (in order) fabricated hadiths in favor of their man. When the Shi'ah found (establish); out what the Bakriyyah had done they increased their efforts.⁶

- “Hammad ibn Salama” (ra) narrates the statement of a Rafidi (a member of the Shiite Twelver sect): “Whenever any proposals used to be passed in our gatherings, we would fabricate a hadith accordingly”.⁷

- The condition of Khawarij regarding fabrication in Hadith: Besides this, the Khawarij, they are free from fabrication in Hadith; because to tale a lie is a great sin to them. (According to the statement of Imam Khattabi).⁸

- Some Muslim Scholars said, Khawarij also fabricated in Hadith, like: Ibn Lahi'a says, “There was a person who was once a leader [shaykh] of the Khawarij (a deviated sect). He later received divine guidance to repent (be sorry) for all his wrongdoings. He advised, ‘Before you accept a hadith, make sure you study the conditions of its narrators. When we (the Khawarij) wanted to propagate (broadcast) something, we used to fabricate a narration accordingly”.⁹

(3) Favor Seekers: (الحصول على الجائزة من السلطان)

- Generally: The various party leaders, the numerous sectarian (সৌভামিপূর্ণ) preachers (parson), and the seekers of favors from the caliphs and their chiefs, and those who sustained (maintained) their legal or theological theories by inventing hadiths were more dangerous to the authenticity of Hadith than the Zanadiqah.¹⁰

- Fabrication in Hadith by some Ahl-As-Sunnah: This was done even, by some of the Ahl As-Sunnah (Sunnis) who differed among themselves on subsidiary (additional) issues and to support their opinions, they resorted (আশ্রয় লওয়া) to inventing hadiths. To gain the favor of sovereigns (royal family) some people fabricated hadiths that might please them.¹¹

 Example: A well-known example is the report of “Ghiyath ibn Ibrahim” who came upon the “Caliph al-Mahdi” (d. 158/785) when this ruler was playing with a pigeon (পিজন-পায়রা). Ghiyath recited to him the famous saying of the Prophet: “There shall be no wager (ওয়েজার- বাজি) except in the case of racing camels, hoofed (পত্তর ক্ষুর) animals or in the case of shooting (competitions)”, [Abu Dawud]. Then Ghiyath added the words “and pigeons”, to please “Al-Mahdi”. The Caliph gave him a large reward, but stated: “Verily, your neck is the neck of a liar who puts false words into the mouth of the Prophet.” Then he ordered the pigeon to be slaughtered (kill).¹²

(4) Storytellers (telling a lie in the story): (الكذب في الحكاية أو القصة)

- It was also dangerous: The storytellers were no less dangerous than the party leaders or sects in fabricating hadiths.

- The system of storytelling: It was like: They saw an easy profit by playing on the credulity (বিশ্বাসপ্রবণতা) of their audience (listeners, viewers). Some of them were compelled (forced) to invent Hadiths through the urge (support) to instill (inspire) into their listeners awe (fear) and reverence (respect) towards the religion.¹³

- Type of fabricating in Hadith: The following event shows an example of the hadiths invented by such storytellers. The hadiths invented by the storytellers were few in the first century, but they increased by the passage of time.

- Contribution of Muslim Scholars regarding storytelles: Hadith scholars (mark out) these hadiths, detected (notice) their fabricators, and put them under severe criticism (analysis, disapproval).

- Example of fabricating in Hadith: Ahmad ibn Hanbal and Yahya ibn Ma'in were performing their prayers in the mosque of Rusafah, when a storyteller stood up in front of them and began to recite the following: Ahmad ibn Hanbal and Yahya ibn Ma'in related to us a hadith on the authority of `Abdur-Razzaq, who in turn had it on the authority of Ma'mar, who had it on the authority of Qatada, who had it on the authority of Anas, who reported: "The Prophet of Allah said, 'Whoever says: There is no Lord but Allah, Allah will create for him for every word he utters of this formula (method) a bird with a beak (mouth) of gold and feathers of pearls (jewel, gem)'"... He continued with his story which would have taken up about twenty pages had he committed it to writing.

Upon this Ahmad ibn Hanbal began to look in amazement (astonishment) at Yahya ibn Ma'in, and Yahya ibn Ma'in at Ahmad ibn Hanbal. Then Ahmad said, "Did you narrate this hadith?", Yahya replied, "By Lord! I never heard this hadith before this present moment". The two remained quiet until he had finished his story. He then undertook to receive contributions and sat down and waited for the rest to come with their gifts, but Yahya ibn Ma'in beckoned (make a gesture) to him with his hand. So he came supposing that it was a gift that he was about to give him. Yahya then asked him, "Who narrated this hadith to you?" He replied, "Ahmad ibn Hanbal and Yahya ibn Ma'in." He retorted, "But I am Yahya ibn Ma'in and this is Ahmad ibn Hanbal! We never heard this story among the hadiths of the Prophet. As a matter of fact, it is nothing but a falsehood! Its authorities are not we!" Then he asked, "Are you Yahya ibn Ma'in?" He answered, "Yes!" He went on, "I constantly (always) hear that Yahya ibn Ma'in is fool, a fact which I never realized until this moment." Then Yahya ibn Ma'in said to him, "How did you know that I was a fool?" He replied, "You act as if there is no other person by the name Yahya ibn Ma'in and Ahmad ibn Hanbal. As for me, I have recorded hadiths on the authority of seventeen persons by the names Ahmad ibn Hanbal and Yahya ibn Ma'in." Then Ahmad ibn Hanbal covered his face out of grief (sorrow) while the lecturer brushed the whole incident (event) off as a joke and vanished (become extinct).

The hadiths concocted (invented) by the storytellers were few in the first century, but they increased by the passage of time. Hadith scholars traced these hadiths, detected their fabricators, and put them under severe criticism.

(5) Human Frailties/ weakness: (ضعف الشخصية): Neglect (ignore), bad memory, feeble-mindedness (weakness), boastfulness (arrogance), and other human frailties (weakness) have also given rise to fabrication.¹

(6) Ignorant Ascetics (saint): (الرهبانية الجاهلية): Those ascetics fabricated hadiths to let the people come close to Allah and devote (apply) much time to different forms of 'Ibadah and even to encourage them to be more pious (religious).²

- When reminded of the hadiths threatening those who lie against the Prophet (SAAS), they say, "We do not tell lies against him, but for him".³ "نحن نكذب لرسول الله لا عليه".

- Example: Al-Albani provided us with this example: "The world is prohibited to people of the Hereafter, and the Hereafter is prohibited to people of the world, and both the world and the Hereafter are prohibited to the people of Allah".⁴

(7) Prejudice (Superstition/ narrow-mindedness) for person, One's Town, Race or Imam: (العصبية لشخص، مدينة، قبيلة أو الإمام): To mention only one example of the last motive (reason, object), that is, to praise one's imam, As-Siba'i cites the alleged hadith that praises Abu Hanifah while degrading (fallen down) Ash-Shafi'i. The hadith reads, "There shall be in my Ummah a man by the name 'Muhammad ibn Idris' who will be more dangerous to my Ummah than 'Iblis' and there shall be a man in my Ummah known as 'Abu Hanifah' who will be the 'lamp' (light) of my Ummah".⁵

- An example of favoring one's race is the report that states that, "When Allah gets angry, He reveals the Qur'an in Persian. And when He is satisfied, He reveals it in Arabic".⁶

{b} Causes of Unintentional Fabrication:

Below are the unintentional reasons behind the widespread phenomenon (occurrence) of the forgery (fake) of hadiths.

(1) Novelty: Some transmitters (teller) took a well-known hadith and supported it with a new isnad (chain of transmission) just for the sake of novelty to attract the people around their transmission.

(2) Mistakes: Sometimes scholars committed a mistake in the transmission of a hadith when its isnad ended with a Companion or a Successor only, so they attributed sayings to the Prophet while a Companion or a Successor was responsible for them.

(3) Inexactness (uncertainty): Some people were not as exact (correct) in the transmission of Hadith as they were in their 'Ibadah, so they committed mistakes in the process of transmission.

(4) Indirect Transmission: Some scholars learned Hadith from a certain sheikh and later came to know that the same teacher had transmitted other hadiths on different occasions. So instead of being satisfied with what they learned directly from their teachers, they transmitted them all, pretending (make believe) that they had learned them.

(5) Failure to Copy: Some learned books from certain authorities but did not copy what they learned at that time. When they grew old and were asked about some hadiths, their desire to appear (show) professional in the field led them to transmit hadiths from copies of the same book which they possessed (have, own), but which did not contain notes giving them ijazah (license to teach) in Hadith. This practice was very common in the fourth century.

(6) Lack of Qualification: Some people lacked the necessary qualifications for teaching Hadith. Then a student came and recited hadiths to them that they had not transmitted, but they ignorantly confirmed the students. [One of the traditional ways of teaching Hadith is that a student recites a group of hadiths reported originally by the teacher, and after this recitation, the teacher gives the student the ijazah that he can report or transmit these hadiths].

(7) Lost Books: Sometimes scholars undertook (start) journeys in pursuit (search) of collecting Hadith and were recognized as Hadith specialists (expert), but unfortunately they lost their books. At a later stage when they took charge of teaching students, they relied (believe) on copies other than their own, without expecting the possibility of the existence of some differences between two copies of the same work, or they relied (trust) on their weak memories.¹

[B] Consequence of fabrication: The fabricated hadith is very dangerous and harmful to the Deen of the Muslims. The Scholars of Islam all agree that it is forbidden (haram) totally to narrate a fabricated hadith unless the person is warning people from its evil.

- This is based on the authentic hadith narrated by Imam Bukhari; Prophet Muhammad (SAAS) said: “Whoever invents a lie and attributes it to me intentionally. Let him prepare his seat in the Fire”. "من كذب علي متعمداً فليتبوأ مقعده من النار".

- Another Hadith, narrated by Muslim in the introduction of his Saheeh: “The one who narrates a hadith ascribing it to me and he knows that it is a fabrication then he is from amongst the liars”, [Muslim].

A fabricated hadith is not a hadith and it is not permissible to narrate it whether it deals with issues of theology (religion), jurisprudence (law), Seerah, or virtues (fadhlaahul aa'maal).²

[3] Some examples of commonly used fabricated Hadith in our society:

(1) Fabricated Hadiths related to knowledge:

دعاء كفارة المجالس

عن أبي هريرة رضي الله عنه قال: قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم: "مَنْ جَلَسَ فِي مَجْلِسٍ فَكَثُرَ فِيهِ لَغَطُهُ فَقَالَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَقُومَ مَنْ مَجْلِسُهُ ذَلِكَ: سُبْحَانَكَ اللَّهُمَّ وَبِحَمْدِكَ أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ أَسْتَغْفِرُكَ وَأَتُوبُ إِلَيْكَ: إِلَّا غُفِرَ لَهُ مَا كَانَ فِي مَجْلِسِهِ ذَلِكَ".

"Abu Hurayrah" (may Allah be pleased with him) reported, The Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: "who sat in the council, it is screamed in this place (if), it to cover with said before standing of his council that: "SUBHANAKA ALLAHUMMA WA-BIHAMDIA, ASH-HADU ALLA IALHA ILLA ANTA ASTAGFIRUKA, WA-TUBU ILIKA". "Glorified God and praise, I testify that, there is no god but You, I beg forgiveness and I repent to you: Only forgiven him wasin his council". [Tirmidhi, Hadith no: 3433].
