

1. Define Makki and Madani Surahs. Summarize their extraordinary characteristics. Why was the holy Qur'an divided into Makki and Madani Surahs?

1. Definition:

- Makki Surahs are the chapters of the Qur'an revealed before the Prophet (SAW) moved to Madinah (before Hijrah).
- Madani Surahs are those revealed after the Prophet (SAW) moved to Madinah, even if they were revealed outside Madinah.

2. Main Differences:

Makki Surahs	Madani Surahs
Revealed before Hijrah	Revealed after Hijrah
Focus on faith (Iman), Tawheed (oneness of Allah) , Day of Judgment, Heaven, and Hell	Focus on Islamic laws , social rules, marriage, war, peace, and community life
Talk about Prophets' stories to give lessons	Talk about Muslims, hypocrites (Munafiqeen), and People of the Book (Jews & Christians)
Short, powerful, and emotional verses	Long, detailed, and clear instructions

3. Special Features:

- Makki Surahs:
 - Strengthen belief in Allah.
 - Wake up people's hearts.
 - Use short and rhythmic sentences.
 - Focus on truth, justice, and hope.
- Madani Surahs:
 - Teach Muslims how to live together.
 - Give rules for family life, society, economy, and war.
 - Warn hypocrites and guide Muslims in dealing with non-Muslims.

4. Why This Division?

- The Qur'an was divided into Makki and Madani Surahs to show the two different times of Islam:
 - Makkah: time of struggle and patience.
 - Madinah: time of building an Islamic society.
- This helps us understand:
 - The background of each verse.
 - How Islam grew step by step.
 - It also helps scholars in explaining (Tafsir) the Qur'an.

5. Conclusion:

Makki and Madani Surahs help us understand the Qur'an better. They show us how Islam began and how it became a complete way of life.

2. Explain how the holy Qur'an was preserved during the time of Prophet Muhammad (SAAS), Abu Bakr (RA), and Uthman (RA). Why wasn't it compiled during the Prophet's lifetime? Identify the differences in the preservation efforts of Abu Bakr and Uthman.

2. Preservation of the Holy Qur'an

During the time of Prophet Muhammad (SAW):

- The Qur'an was preserved in three ways:
 - Memorization – Many companions were Huffaz (memorizers).
 - Writing – Scribes like Zayd ibn Thabit wrote the verses.
 - Recitation – Prophet (SAW) used to recite regularly with companions.
- It was written on bones, leather, stones, and leaves.
- The Qur'an was not compiled into a book because:
 - Revelation was not complete.
 - Angel Jibreel would bring new verses and change the order.

- Prophet (SAW) guided where each verse should be placed.

During the time of Abu Bakr (RA):

- After the Prophet's death, many Huffaz were killed in the Battle of Yamama.
- Umar (RA) suggested collecting the Qur'an in one book.
- Abu Bakr (RA) ordered Zayd ibn Thabit to collect all verses.
- Zayd used:
 - Memory of the Huffaz
 - Written materials, checked by two witnesses
- The final book was called a Mushaf.
- It was kept with Hafsa (RA), the Prophet's wife.

During the time of Uthman (RA):

- Islam spread to many countries with different languages and accents.
- People started arguing over how to recite the Qur'an.
- Uthman (RA) made a standard Qur'an in the Qurayshi dialect (the Prophet's dialect).
- He sent copies of the standard Mushaf to different cities.
- He burned all other unofficial copies to stop confusion.

3. Illustrate the I'jaz (miraculous nature) of the holy Qur'an by summarizing different types of its miracles, including scientific indications. Prove it as the greatest miracle of Prophet Muhammad (SAAS) with evidence.

. I'jaz (Miracle) of the Holy Qur'an

What is I'jaz al-Qur'an?

- I'jaz means miracle.
- It shows that the Qur'an is beyond human power.
- No one can create even one Surah like it.
- This is proof that the Qur'an is from Allah, not from humans.

Types of Miracles in the Qur'an

1. Linguistic Miracle

- Arabs were masters of language.
- Qur'an challenged them to make a Surah like it – they failed.
- Its style, rhythm, and beauty are unmatched.
- Revealed over 23 years, but no contradiction.

2. Scientific Miracles

- Qur'an gave facts that science discovered much later:

Scientific Fact	Surah
Human embryo stages	Surah Al-Mu'minun: 12-14
Expanding universe	Surah Adh-Dhariyat: 47
Barrier between salt & fresh water	Surah Ar-Rahman: 19-20

These things were not known 1400 years ago.

3. Prophecies (Future Events)

- Qur'an predicted Romans will win after defeat:
 - Surah Ar-Rum: 2-4
 - It came true a few years later.

4. Preservation

- Qur'an is the only book unchanged for over 1400 years.
- No errors, no version changes.
- Memorized by millions around the world.

5. Spiritual Impact

- Qur'an changes lives and hearts.
- It reforms bad people and guides whole societies.
- Still followed by millions today.

The Greatest Miracle of the Prophet (SAW)

- Other Prophets had time-limited miracles (e.g., Musa's staff, Isa's healing).
- Prophet Muhammad (SAW) said:

"All Prophets were given miracles, but I was given the Qur'an... I hope to have the most followers on the Day of Judgment." (Bukhari)

- His miracle is everlasting, still active today.

Why not compiled during Prophet's life?

- Because revelation was ongoing.
- The final order of verses and Surahs was given by Angel Jibreel.
- The Prophet (SAW) followed divine instructions on where each verse should go.

4. Define Naskh (Abrogation) literally and terminologically.
Explain its types in the Qur'an and Hadith with examples.

4. Naskh (Abrogation) – Definition, Types, and Examples

Definition:

- Literal meaning: Naskh means to erase, replace, or copy.
- Terminology: In Islam, Naskh means that Allah replaces an earlier rule with a new one to suit changing situations.

Why Naskh?

- Islam was revealed gradually.
- People needed time to adjust to new laws.
- Naskh shows Allah's wisdom in guiding people step-by-step.

Qur'anic Proof:

“Whatever verse We abrogate or cause to be forgotten, We bring one better or similar.”
(Surah Al-Baqarah: 106)

Types of Naskh:

1. Naskh al-Hukm wa al-Tilawah
 - a. Ruling and verse both removed.
 - b. Example: Verse about stoning adulterers – no longer in the Qur'an, but was once acted upon.
2. Naskh al-Tilawah duna al-Hukm
 - a. Verse removed, ruling remains.
 - b. Example: Breastfeeding an adult – verse not in Mushaf but law was practiced.
3. Naskh al-Hukm duna al-Tilawah
 - a. Verse remains, ruling ended.
 - b. Example: Surah Al-Baqarah:180 – old rule about inheritance replaced by new detailed laws.

Naskh in Hadith:

- Example:
 - First Qiblah was Jerusalem, later changed to Ka'bah in Makkah.
- This helped Muslims grow in faith and practice step by step.

5. Explain the position and importance of Hadith in Islamic Shari'ah. How does Hadith differ from the Qur'an in terms of authority, purpose, and usage in Islamic law?

5. Position and Importance of Hadith in Shari'ah

Importance of Hadith:

- Hadith is the second source of Islamic law after the Qur'an.
- It explains the Qur'an and shows how to follow it practically.

“Obey Allah and obey the Messenger...”

(Surah An-Nisa: 59)

Role of Hadith:

- Explains Qur'anic verses.
- Shows actions of Prophet (SAW): how to pray, fast, give zakat, perform Hajj, etc.
- Gives rulings not clearly in Qur'an.

Difference: Qur'an vs. Hadith

Feature

Qur'an

Hadith

Source	Word + meaning from Allah	Meaning from Allah, words from the Prophet
Status	Primary source	Secondary source
Style	Direct, divine	Explained through sayings, actions, approvals
Preservation	Fully preserved (Mutawatir)	Different levels (Sahih, Da'if, etc.)

Conclusion:

- Without Hadith, we cannot understand or practice Islam fully.
- Hadith is essential for Fiqh (Islamic law) and daily Islamic life.

6a. Define Hadith both literally and terminologically. Explain its types based on: • The number of reporters in the Sanad at each stage • Reference to a particular authority (Include suitable examples.)

6a. Hadith: Definition and Types

Definition:

- Literal meaning: New thing, story, report.
- Islamic meaning: Anything said, done, approved, or described about Prophet Muhammad (SAW).

Examples:

- Saying: “Actions are judged by intentions...” (Sahih Bukhari)
- Action: Sleeping on right side after Fajr Sunnah (Aisha RA – Bukhari)
- Silent approval: Prophet saw 2 rak'ah before Maghrib – did not stop it (Muslim)

- Description: Prophet was shy than a veiled girl (Bukhari & Muslim)

Types Based on Number of Reporters:

1. Mutawatir – Many narrators in each stage
Example: “Whoever lies about me, let him reserve his seat in Hell.” (Bukhari, Muslim)
2. Ahad – Not as widely narrated
 - a. Mashhur: Few at first, then became famous
→ “Actions are judged by intentions...” (Bukhari)
 - b. Aziz: At least 2 narrators at one level
→ “None of you truly believes until I am more beloved...” (Bukhari)
 - c. Gharib: Only one narrator at any level
→ “Travel is a part of torment.” (Bukhari)

Types Based on Reference:

1. Marfoo‘: Directly from Prophet
→ “Actions are judged by intentions...” (Bukhari)
2. Mawqoof: From Companion only
→ Ali (RA): “Preach to people according to their level...”
3. Maqtoo‘: From a Tabi’ee (Successor)
→ Hasan al-Basri: “You can pray behind a sinful Imam...”

6b. Explain the following with examples: • Sanad & Matan • Al-Hadith As-Sahih • Al-Hadith Al-Qudsi • Al-Hadith Al-Mawdu‘ • Six major books of Hadith (Al-Kutub As-Sittah)

6b. More Hadith Concepts

i. Sanad and Matan

- Sanad: Chain of narrators.
- Matan: Actual text of the Hadith.
- Example: In “Actions are judged by intentions,” the narrators are the Sanad, and the quote is the Matan.

ii. Sahih Hadith

- Reliable chain, honest narrators, no flaws.
- Example: “Actions are judged by intentions...” (Bukhari, Hadith 1)

iii. Hadith Qudsi

- Words of the Prophet, meaning from Allah.
- Not part of the Qur’an.
- Example: “Allah said: I am as My servant thinks I am...” (Bukhari 7405)

iv. Mawdu‘ (Fabricated) Hadith

- Fake Hadith falsely linked to the Prophet.
- Example: “Talking in mosque wastes good deeds...” – No authentic source.

v. Six Major Books of Hadith (Kutub al-Sittah)

Book	Compiler	Notes
1. Sahih al-Bukhari	Imam Bukhari	Most authentic
2. Sahih Muslim	Imam Muslim	2nd most authentic

3. Sunan Abu Dawood	Abu Dawood	Focus on legal rulings
4. Jami' at-Tirmidhi	Tirmidhi	Includes Hadith grading
5. Sunan an-Nasa'i	An-Nasa'i	Reliable Fiqh-related Hadith
6. Sunan Ibn Majah	Ibn Majah	Extra Hadiths not in others
