

Summary points for each Ayaat. Read the translations before using this. New line between bullet points indicates next Ayaat.

Surah Yunus:24 (10:24)

Transition of human life.

Likelihood of this world:

- Send down rain.
- Earth produces food for men and animals.
- Earth becomes beautiful (clad with golden ornaments)
- People/Owner thinks they have power and full control over it
- Allah's command by day or night destroys them like they didn't exist yesterday
- A sign for those who reflect

Surah Baqarah: 172 (2:172-173)

Rules of livelihood

- Believers, Eat lawful things and be grateful
- Forbidden: dead meat
- blood
- swine
- food over which name other than Allah is invoked
- Only allowed if forced by necessity without willful disobedience or transgression.

Surah Baqarah: 275 (2:275-279)

Rules and impact of interest and loan

- Interest consumer will stand on the Day of Judgement like beaten by Satan into insanity.
- Bcz they say trading is like interest
- Allah has permitted trade and forbidden interest
- If, desists the past after receiving admonition from his Lord may keep his wealth
- Else, companions of Fire forever

- Allah effaces usury (diminishing and eliminating any blessing in it) and increases sadaqah

- Those who believe
- Do good
- Establish prayer
- Pay Zakah
- Will be rewarded
- No fear nor grief

- Believers, fear Allah and abandon outstanding usury (if you believe).

- If not, warning of war with Allah and Messenger.
 - If repent, keep your wealth
-

Surah Maidah: 90 (5:90-91)

Rules and impact of drug and gambling

- Believers, Work of Satan - wine (intoxicants)
- Game of chance (gambling)
- Idols
- Divinatory arrow
- Avoid them to prosper

- Satan wants enmity and hatred between you
- And keep you away from remembrance of Allah through intoxicants and gambling.
- Will you not desist?

Surah Nur: 30 (24:30-31)

Rules and ethical directions of marriage, mahr and veil

- Men restrain their looks and guard chastity

- Women restrain their looks and guard chastity.
- Do not display beauty and draw veils over bosom
- Except mahram: Husband
- Father
- Husband's father
- Sons
- Husband's sons

- Brothers
- Brother's sons
- Sister
- Sister's sons
- Their women
- Slaves whom their right hand possesses
- Male servants free of physical needs
- Small children with no sense of shame of sex
- Do not strike feet to draw attention to their ornaments

Surah Ahzab: 59 (33:59)

- Prophet, order wives and daughters to bring down their outer garments to cover to get known and not be abused.

Surah Baqarah: 227 (2:227-230)

Rules and ethical directions of divorce

- If firmly upon divorce Allah listens and knows:
- Women wait for three menstrual periods
- Not lawful to conceal babies in their wombs.
- If reconcile, both husbands and wives have rights to a reasonable degree, but men have greater rights
- If divorce twice: keep her or release in acceptable manner

- Do not take what was given to her unless she gives back
- If divorce thrice: cannot take her unless married to someone else and divorced

Surah Luqman: 13 (31:13-19)

Sermon of a father to his son

- Luqman advises his son: 'do not shirk with Allah, it is the highest sin.' (pause)
- Enjoined upon men to be good and grateful to parents bcz mom carries travails upon travails for two years after birth.
- If parents pressures to shirk, do not obey them but still bear them with kindness.
- Luqman advises his son: 'A deed weighing like mustard seed hidden in rock or anywhere in heavens or earth, Allah will bring it forth.'
- Establish prayer
- Enjoin good and forbid evil
- Be patient - this is firmness in affairs
- Do not swell cheek or walk with arrogance (not loved by Allah)
- Be moderate in pace and lower your voice - harshest sound is braying of ass.'

Surah Furqan: 63 (25:63-76)

Characteristics of human beings

- Servants of the Most Merciful: walk on earth with humility
- When ignorants address them they reply with words of gentleness/peace.
- Spend night prostrating and standing before their Lord.
- They say: 'Our Lord, avert/save us from the torment of Hell, its torment is inseparable, permanent punishment.
- Evil to abide (temporary) and to dwell (permanent)'
- Neither spend extravagantly nor niggardly but hold medium between these extremes.
- Invoke none with Allah
- Do not kill life as Allah has forbidden except for just cause
- Do not commit illegal sexual intercourse
- Whoever does this will get punishment
- Double torment on Day of Judgement and abide there in disgrace
- Except those who repent.
- Believe
- Do righteous
- Allah will convert the sins into good deeds.

- Who repents and does good, verily he repented with true repentance
- Do not witness falsehood
- Pass by evil play or talk with dignity
- When reminded of Ayaat, fall not deaf and blind
- They say: 'Lord, bestow wives and offspring who cool/comfort our eyes
- And make us leaders of Muttaqoon'
- They will be rewarded with highest place for patience
- Will be met with greetings and word of peace and respect.
- Forever in the excellent abode or dwelling.

Surah Mu'minoon: 1 (23:1-11)

- Believers succeeded:
- Those humble and submissive in prayer
- Turn away from ill speech
- Observant of Zakah
- Gaurd private parts.

- Except wives and possessed by right hand
- Seeking beyond those are transgressors
- Attentive to trusts and promises/covenants
- Carefully maintain prayers
- They are inheritors
- Inheriting Al-Firdaus, abide therein eternally.

Surah Asr: 1 (103:1-3)

- By Al-Asr (the time)
- Verily, men is in loss
- Except those: who believe,
- Do righteous deeds
- Urge/recommend one another to the truth
- Urge/recommend one another to patience