A brief introduction to the course and its importance

Quran is our holy book that was sent down on the prophet Muhammad ﷺ over the period of 23 years. Before its revelation there existed other three books as well but most teachings in them were changed. Whereas the Quran is the complete code of life which guides us about different parts of society like morals, social affairs, politics, ethics and so much more. It has special rules to recite. We will learn these rules from this course, Insha Allah.

¹ For non-muslim students we will have substitute subject.

Definition of Tajweed:

- ✓ Tajweed linguistically: This word originated from Arabic. It means betterment² (standard/quality). So, Tajweedul Qurán means recitation of the Qurán with precise articulation and intonation.
- ✓ Tajweed technically: Articulating every letter from its articulation point (উচ্চারণস্থল/مَخْرَج) and giving the letter its rights and dues of characteristics³.
- ✓ Rights of letters are its required characteristics that never leave it. The dues of the letters are its presented characteristics that are present in it some of the time, and not present at other times⁴.

Subject: The words of the holy Quran⁵.

Target: Its main target is to prevent the reader from making mistakes in pronunciation of the holy Quran while reading.

Why the need for tajweed rules?

When Islam was being spread (and it was done so at a very quick pace and also into non-Arab speaking countries) not everyone's tongue was accustomed to the Arabic letters and sounds. Thus, when reciting the Qur'an, much error and distortion occurred and the Muslim scholars feared (the perpetration of) that error and distortion. It was at this point that some of them recorded the rules and foundations that regulate the correct pronunciation of the Qur'an, and they named this the Science of Tajweed. The rules were not made up by these Scholars. In fact, all they did was closely observe the perfect readers who read as they were taught by the Prophet ﷺ and wrote down for later generations the rules of recitation of the earlier generations.

Tajweed is more practical than theoretical.

From the outset, Tajweed was a Science that cannot be learnt only from a book and will always retain this inherent quality. It is more practical than theoretical.

The most important part of Tajweed is learning about the correct positions of the organs of speech and the manner of articulation. The Qur'an can lose its meaning if the letters are not pronounced correctly.

Example {كلب= Dog} & {قلب= Heart}

The first letters are similar in pronunciation, but if not pronounced correctly will change the word meaning completely. e.g. Heart > Dog.

Tajweed is not intended to be about just learning rules and committing them to memory, but rather the correct application of those rules while reciting the Qur'an.

⁴Czerepinski, Kareema Carol, Tajweed rules of the holy Qurán, Part one, Page no-23

When 'tajweed' is observed, the reading will flow smoothly and eloquently. The reader will also be sure he is following the holy Prophet's ﷺ example by reciting the Qur'an just as the Prophet ﷺ did and just as it was revealed to him. Insha'Allah.

The reader should be aware about the LAHN (Mistake):

Failure to adhere to those rules may result in an unacceptable manner of reading, altering the entire meaning of the words and making one guilty of the unintentional utterance of the words of disbelief (kufr). Incorrect recital of the Qur'an constitutes LAHN, which may deprive the reader of any reward in the Hereafter, and Allah Knows Best.

سُورَةُ الْفَاتِحَةِ⁶ Surah Fatihah أَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ الرَّجِيمِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ
الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ^١ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ^٢
مَلِكِ يَوْمِ الدِّينِ^٣ إِيَّاكَ نَعْبُدُ وَإِيَّاكَ نَسْتَعِينُ^٤
اهْدِنَا الصِّرَاطَ الْمُسْتَقِيمَ^٥ صِرَاطَ الَّذِينَ أَنْعَمْتَ
عَلَيْهِمْ^٦ غَيْرِ الْمَغْضُوبِ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَا الضَّالِّينَ^٧

From this part, we have to achieve four goals. These are:

1. Recitation (Tilawat) with intonation (Tarteel):

We already knew the importance of recitation of the holy Quran in correct way.

Allah says in the holy Quran:

وَرَتِّلِ الْقُرْآنَ تَرْتِيلًا ﴿٢٨﴾

⁶This Surahh is named Al-Fatihah because of its subject matter. Fatihah is that which opens a subject or a book or any other thing. In other words, Al-Fatihah is a sort of preface. Surahh Al-Fatihah is one of the very earliest Revelations to the Holy Prophet. As a matter of fact, we learn from authentic traditions that it was the first complete Surahh that was revealed to Muhammad (Allah's peace be upon him). Before this, only a few miscellaneous verses were revealed which form parts of Alaq, Muzzammil, Muddaththir, etc.

& Prophet ﷺ said:

عَنِ الْبَرَاءِ بْنِ عَازِبٍ، قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ "زَيِّنُوا الْقُرْآنَ بِأَصْوَاتِكُمْ".

The Prophet (ﷺ) said: Beautify the Qur'an with your voices⁷.

He also said:

قَالَ عُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ أَبِي يَزِيدَ مَرَّ بِنَا أَبُو لُبَابَةَ فَأَتْبَعْنَاهُ حَتَّى دَخَلَ بَيْتَهُ فَدَخَلْنَا عَلَيْهِ فَإِذَا رَجُلٌ رَثُّ الْبَيْتِ رَثُّ الْهَيْئَةِ
فَسَبَّغْتُهُ يَقُولُ سَبَّغْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ:

“لَيْسَ مِنَّا مَنْ لَمْ يَتَغَنَّ بِالْقُرْآنِ”.

قَالَ فَقُلْتُ لِابْنِ أَبِي مُلَيْكَةَ يَا أَبَا مُحَمَّدٍ أَرَأَيْتَ إِذَا لَمْ يَكُنْ حَسَنَ الصَّوْتِ قَالَ يُحَسِّنُهُ مَا اسْتَطَاعَ.

Ubaydullah ibn Yazid said: AbuLubabah passed by us and we followed him till he entered his house, and we also entered it. There was a man in a rusty house in shabby condition. I heard him say: I heard the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) say:

“He is not one of us who does not chant the Qur'an.”

I said to Ibn AbuMulaykah: Abu Muhammad, what do you think if a person does not have a pleasant voice? He said: He should recite with the pleasant voice as much as possible⁸.

2. Memorization:

The Quran is the Book of Allah Almighty, when you memorize it, it will open all the doors of goodness on you. Memorizing the Quran is the best you can do! You will be rewarded the ten good deeds for every single letter of the Quran you will read and memorize. If you would like your ethics to be like the Prophet's, you have to memorize the Quran.

Ibn Mas'ūd reported God's messenger as saying:

“If anyone recites a letter of God's Book he will be credited with a good deed, and a good deed gets a tenfold reward (Al-Qur'ān, 6:160). I do not say that A.L.M are one letter*, but alif is a letter, lām is a letter and mīm is a letter⁹.”

⁸ As-Sijistani, Abu Daud, Sunan Abi Daud, Chapter: How It Is Recommended To Recite (The Qur'an) With Tartil, Book 8, Hadith 56

‘Abdallāh b ‘Amr reported God’s messenger as saying, “The one who was devoted to the Qur’ān will be told to recite, ascend and recite carefully as he recited carefully when he was in the world, for he will reach his abode when he comes to the last verse, he recites¹⁰.”

Tadabbur (Contemplation/ Pondering):

Tadabbur, means pondering over the meaning of the verses of the Qur'an and contemplating them. Literally, it means to look into the consequence or the end result of matters, e. g. if we did that what would happen to us.

It is not enough to learn the Qur'an and recite it profusely. But what is required from us is to understand the words and the meaning of the verses. To know the matter (or the case or what the verse says) and this cannot be attained except by reading the Tafseer (the interpretation), by heart or heedful mind and not by ears and eyes.

It is also said that Tadabbur is comprehensive and deep thinking and consideration to reach to guidance or indications.

- ❖ For uttering any Arabic letter or word we have to know some terms; especially four terms. They are:

❖ اَلْحَرَكَةُ ' al -harakah,

❖ اَلسُّكُونُ as -sukun.

❖ اَلتَّنْوِينُ at- tanween,

❖ اَلتَّشْدِيدُ - اَلشَّدَّةُ at- tashdidor Shaddah ,

- ❖ A person- who knows Arabic grammar can correctly read any Arabic word or sentence without the assistance of these terms, but a beginner needs them very much. In the Arabic language, a vowel is called " حَرَكَةٌ " and a consonant with vowel signs is called 'مُتَحَرِّكٌ' mutahar-rik 'moved' and a consonant without a vowel sign is called 'سَاكِنٌ' saakin 'restion'.
- ❖ N.B. The transliteration of an Arabic word is not the proper way of correct pronunciation. It is fully dependent on listening.
- ❖ حروف العلة الساكنة (পেশ) والضممة (যের) والكسرة (যবর) الفتحة: স্বরধ্বনি হ্রস্ব-স্বরধ্বনি দীর্ঘ-স্বরধ্বনি এর বর্ণনা (আরবী আকার ইকার এবং স্বরবর্ণ)

Types of Al harakat (الْحَرَكَات) vowels

There are three short vowel signs in the Arabic language. They are الضمة ad- dhammah, الْفَتْحَةُ al- fathah and الْكَسْرَةُ al-kasrah.

ad- dammah (الضمة) :

Dammah (◌ُ) is like a small ‘و’ “waw” above a consonant. It is the English equivalent of the letter “o” and “u” e.g.

Example:

Words	English transliteration	Bangla Transliteration
جَزَاءُ	jazaa' u	জাযা----উ
حَيْثُ	hay- thu	হাইছু
عَذَابُ	adhaa bu	আজা-বু
يُخْرِجُ	yukh-ri ju	ইউখরিজু

Al- fathah (الْفَتْحَةُ)

¹⁵ This is Madd Sign. I- Grade one, II- Grade two, III- Grade three or four

Fathah (◌َ) is a small diagonal stroke above a consonant. The letter which holds this fathah is known as ‘maftuh’ (مَفْتُوحٌ). This vowel is the English equivalent of the letter “a” e.g.

Example:

Words	English transliteration	Bangla Transliteration
خَلَقَ	Khala qa	খালা কা
ذَلِكَ	dhali ka	যালি কা
فَعَلَ	fa‘a la	ফাআ লা
ذَهَبَ	dhaha ba	জাহা বা
سَمِعَ	sami‘ a	সামি য়া

Al-kasrah (◌ِ):

Kasrah (◌ِ) is a small diagonal stroke under a consonant. The letter which holds this kasra under it is known as maksur (مَكْسُورٌ) in Arabic. It is the English equivalent of the letter “e” and “i” e.g.

Example:

Words	English transliteration	Bangla Transliteration
تِلْكَ	ti lka	তি লকা

Session-3

Introduction of Sukun, Tanween, Shaddah

- Practice on Sukun
- Practice on Tanween with it's types.
- Practice on Tashdid/Shaddah
- Details forms of Arabic letter
- Recitation (Tilawat) with intonation (Tarteel), Memorization, Translation & Tadabbur (Contemplation) of Sura Falaq.

As-sukuun (السُّكُونُ) – vowel less

سُكُونُ sukuun means quietude, silence or stillness. In taj-weed, it refers to an absence of a vowel. When a letter is without any vowel mark it is called 'ساكن' saakin (vowel less or resting). It indicates a linking relationship with nearby letters. For indicating this sukuun Arab used to use a semi-circle sign such as ـَ or "O" over any letter. A letter with a sukuun sign must link to any previous letter. This relationship will form a single or syllable or sound. When one consonant in a word is with the short vowel sign and the following letter is saakin, the two letters form a syllable, they will be read together and thus produces a joint sound e.g. اَلْاَن : the word is stop and indicated as a syllable. اَلَمْ -lam, اَبْ -ab, اَتْ -at, اَجْ -aj, اِنْ in. For further understanding some words including sukuun and their transliteration are given below:

Example:

Words	English transliteration	Bangla transliteration
فَكْرٌ	Fakh -run	ফাখরুন
فِسْقٌ	Fis -qun	ফিসকুন
عُشْبٌ	ush -bun	উসবুন
قَصْدٌ	gas -dun	কাসদুন
قُفْلٌ	Quf -lun	কুফলুন

Tanween (التَّنْوِين) :

We knew about the three vowels of the Arabic language. We also learned that these vowels have the capability of doubling. The sound produced as a result of double vowel signs (ُ ُ) on a consonant is called "تَنْوِينٌ" tanween. The letter which holds this tanween is known as munaw-wan (مُنَوِّن). Since, all three harakat have this capability of doubling, they are given separate names: a doubled dammah is called a dammataan (ضَمَّتَان), a doubled fathah is called a fathataan (فَتَحَّتَان), and a doubled kasrah is called a kasrataan (كَسَرَّتَان). When a double short vowel sign is staying over a letter, then the letter is pronounced with an additional "Nuun" with sukuun. And this "Nuun" is not written but it is pronounced. The tan-ween occurs on the last letter of the word; it may not come upon a letter which is in the middle or beginning.

Some variations between harakat and tanween in example:

- ❖ Letter ت with one fathah (تَ) is pronounced 'ta', but the same ت with double fathahs (تَأْ) is pronounced as 'tan', with double dammahs (تُ) is pronounced as 'tun' and with double kasrahs (تِ) is pronounced as 'tin'.
- ❖ Letter ج with one fathah (جَ) is pronounced 'ja', but the same ج with double fathah (جَأْ) is pronounced as 'jan'. With double damma (جُ) is pronounced as 'jun' and with double kasrah (جِ) is pronounced as 'jin'.
- ❖ Letter ح with one fathah (حَ) is pronounced 'ha', but the same ح with double fathah (حَأْ) is pronounced as 'han'. With double dammah (حُ) is pronounced as 'hun' and with double kasrah (حِ) is pronounced as 'hin'.

Dammataan (ضَمَّتَان)

Dam-mataan means two dam-mahs (ُ ُ) or a doubled dam-mahs is known as dam-matan. . For example, the letter 'baa' with two dam-mah sounds like 'bun'.

Example:

Words	English transliteration	Bangla transliteration
خَيْرٌ	khay run	খাইরুন
لِبَاسٌ	Libaa sun	লিবা-সুন
عَزِيْزٌ	'azii zun	আজি-জুন
بَطِيْشٌ	Batii shun	বাতি-শুন
قِصَاصٌ	Qisaa sun	কিস্বা-সুন

Fathataan (فَتْحَاتَان)

Fat-hataan means two fat-has (َ َ) or a doubled fathah is known as a fathatan. When a letter such as 'raa' is given a fat-hataan, it sounds like 'run', as in the word 'run' in English. There is an important observation to make with the fat-hatan; it is that when a letter is written with this vowel, it is always followed by the letter 'alif' (ا) (exception: if the ending of a word is ta 'ة'). Each letter in the alphabet will have the letter 'alif' after itself, and the fat-hatan will be written a top of this 'alif'. This is only for script purposes.

Example:

Words	English transliteration	Bangla transliteration
لَذِيذًا	Ladhii ghan	লাজি-জান
كَثِيرًا	Kathii ran	কাছি-রান
عَزِيزًا	'azi zan	আজি-জান
شَمْسًا	Sham san	শামছান
فِرَاشًا	Firaa shan	ফিরা-শান

Kasrataan (كَسْرَاتَان)

Kasrataan means two kasrah (-ِ). The vowel is the kas-rah, known as the kas-rataan when it is doubled. This vowel is the english equivalent of the letter 'e' and 'i' with the addition of the letter 'n'. The letter 'baa'- for example- taking a kas-rataan is pronounced like 'bin'.

Example:

Words	English transliteration	Bangla transliteration
تَضْلِيلًا	tadhlii lin	তাদলি-লিন
تَسْنِيمًا	tasnii min	তাসনী-মিন
عَدْنًا	'ad nin	আদনিন
لَهْفًا	lah win	লাহউইন
كُرْهًا	kur hin	কুরহিন

Tashdid/Shaddah (تَشْدِيد/شَدَّة)

Tashdid/Shaddah (شَدَّة/تَشْدِيد) means emphasis, intensification, doubling or geminating. When a consonant occurs twice, one after the other without a vowel in between, it is written once and the sign of emphasis (شَدَّة - šaddah) is placed over it. It is functionally equivalent to writing a consonant twice in English language. A letter with tashdid is called mushaddad (مُشَدَّد) 'doubled' or intensified or stressed. A letter with a shaddah (ّ) is pronounced twice e.g. (ثُمَّ-مَ) ثُمَّ < ضَلَّ dhal- la ثُمَّ < ثَمَّ (সুমমা) thum- ma etc. It has various ways:

1) tashdid with dammaheg.

مُتُّ mut-tu (মুত-তু) طَرَدْتُ tarad-tu (ত্বারাদতু)

2) tash-did with fat-hah eg.

ذَنَّ dhan-na (যান-না) إِنَّ 'in-na (ইন-না)

3) tash-did with kas-rah e.g

يُبَّيْ yubay-yinu (ইউবাই-ইনু) تُقَابُ tuqab- (তুকাব- বিলু)

4) tash-did with dham-mataan e.g.

حِلُّ hil-lun (হিল-লুন) خِفُّ khif-fun (খিফ-ফুন)

5) tash -did with fat-hataan e.g.

جَمَّ jam-man (জাম-মান) حُبَّ hub-ban (হুব- বান)

6) tash-did with kas-rataan e.g.

فَجَّ faj-jin (ফাজ-জিন) رَقَّ raq-qin (রাক-কিন)

Details forms of Arabic letter:

The Arabic language is not like that of English, because it is read and written from the right side and its letters do not remain in the same format the beginning, middle and end of a word. A chart of Arabic alphabet forms is given below.

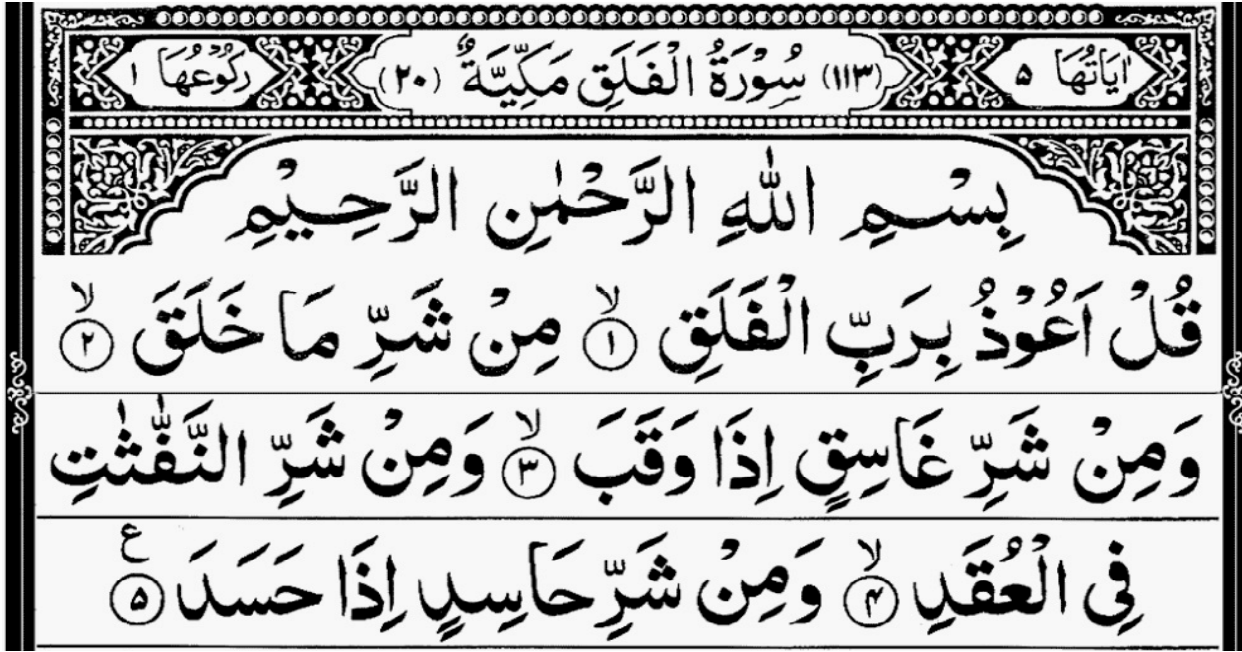

Detached Form	Beginning	Middle	End
ا		ا = بَاب	هَذَا = ا

ع	أ= أَعُوذُ	أ= بِأَسَاءُ	ع= ضَرَاءُ
	ي= يَدٌ	ي= فِيهَا	ي= عَنِي

In the above chart, we saw that six letters (ع, د, ذ, ر, ز, و) were not connected to the letters following them, therefore their initial forms matched the isolated and their medial forms matched the end.

Session-4

Discussion on Quranic mistakes

- Importance of learning the correct recitation of the Qur'an.
- (i) Ta'awudh / Istia'azah, (Reciting A'uzubillah....) (ii) Basmalah, (Reciting Bismillah...) (iii) Tilawat (Recitation) & Tarteel (Intonation), (iv) Tadabbur (Contemplation).
- Practice and memorization of suhar al-Ikhlās.

¹⁸ Usmani, Mufti Taqi, Quran-e-Karim, Surah Falaq – 1-5, P 1033

¹⁹ Khan, Mawlana Muhiuddin, Maareful Quran (Bangla), Islamic Foundation, Surah Nas-1-5

- Recitation (Tilawat) with intonation (Tarteel), Memorization, Translation & Tadabbur (Contemplation) of Surah Ikhlas.

The Qur'an is the word of Allah, and every syllable is from Allah. Its recitation must be taken very seriously. The purpose of tajwēd is to make the reciter proficient in reciting the Qur'an, observing the correct pronunciation of every letter with the rulings and characteristics which apply to each letter, without any exaggeration or deficiency. And so through this, the reciter can recite the Qur'an upon the way of the Prophet (S) who received it from Jibreel who received it from Allah (SWT). There are two types of mistakes in recitation: clear mistakes and unobvious (hidden) mistakes.

Clear mistakes

Mistakes in words which are clear and inconspicuous, usually changing the meaning. Mistakes related to correct pronunciation of letters so that letters are not mixed up.

Examples of clear mistakes:

- Changing one letter into another, or a short vowel (harakah) into another, (changing fathah into damma or the letter Qaaf into Kaaf etc)
- Not observing the elongations (madd) at all. Reciting them quickly as if there is no Madd so that they turn into the length of a vowel.
- Making a madd letter out of a normal harakah.
- Stopping or starting at an incorrect place so that the meaning is spoilt. Like stopping at 'Laailaaha' (There is no God), without completing 'illallaah' (except Allah).

Unobvious mistakes

Mistakes which are to do with perfecting pronunciation and are not obvious. Known only by those who have studied Tajwēd rules or experts in this field. Ordinary Muslims may not know these or perceive these as mistakes.

Examples of Unobvious mistakes:

- Not being totally exact with the elongation of letters: (Making the Madd shorter or longer by a 1/2 or even 1/4 degree etc.)
- Not observing the attributes of each letter perfectly: (Slightly rolling the Raa', or exaggerating the 'N' sound in Noon etc.)
- Not observing the rules with which to pronounce letters when they are next to each other (like not merging certain letters that should be merged (idghaam) and not clearly pronouncing those which should be clearly pronounced (izhaar) etc.)

The clear mistakes must be avoided by all and to avoid them one must memories and read attentively and have knowledge of some basic aspects of tajwēd. If a person falls into the Clear Mistakes, this is considered a sin. As for the unobvious mistakes, then the ruling on them is lighter and the recitation of a person falling into this type of mistake is regarded as lacking in completeness but prayer behind such a person is sound.

Is-tiadha and bas-mala

التَّعَوُّذُ : The meaning of isti'adhah (استعاذة) is seeking refuge or protection. In Tajwēd seeking the protection and refuge with Allah from satan before recitation of the Quran is called الاستعاذة isti'adhah. In the Quran Allah (swt) said:

[Surah Nahl: 98] ﴿فَإِذَا قَرَأْتَ الْقُرْآنَ فَاسْتَعِذْ بِاللَّهِ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ الرَّجِيمِ﴾

So, when you recite the Qur'an, seek refuge with Allah against Satan the accursed²⁰.

অতএব, যখন আপনি কোরআন পাঠ করেন তখন বিতাড়িত শয়তান থেকে আল্লাহর আশ্রয় গ্রহণ করুন²¹। (১৬: ৯৮)

The famous Sentence of “أَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ الرَّجِيمِ” is ﴿الِاسْتِعَاذَةُ﴾

Some rules of 'isti'adhah:

- ❖ Seeking refuge should be silent in the time of reciting the Quran silently.
- ❖ In the prayer it will be done silently.
- ❖ It will be done loud at the time of reciting the Quran aloud.
- ❖ Repeating the seeking of refuge after cutting off the recitation of the Holy Quran by coughing, sneezing or by talking referring to the reading or meaning of the verses
- ❖ Repeating of seeking refuge before the beginning of reciting the Quran should be repeated after cutting off reading by work or normal conversation or by eating etc.

البَسْمَلَةُ

بِسْمَلَةُ : Bas-malah means reciting ‘بِسْمِ اللَّهِ’. In Tajwēd, before reciting from the Holy Quran reciting the name of Allah is called Bas-malah. It is also called “Tas-miah” and full sentence of Bas-malah is ﴿بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ﴾

²⁰ Usmani, Mufti Taqi, Quran-e-Karim, Surah Nahl 98, P 438

²¹ Khan, Mawlana Muhiuddin, Maareful Quran (Bangla), Islamic Foundation, Surah Nahl 98

The ways of seeking refuge with Bas- mala at the time of reciting Holy Qur'an.

Here are three things. Isti'adha, Bas- malah, and the part of Quran. There are four options of reciting²².

- Reading everything separately.

Seeking refuge, stopping, saying the bas-malah, stopping and then starting the suurah:

• اَعُوْذُ بِاللّٰهِ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ الرَّجِيْمِ • بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ • الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِيْنَ

- Reading all three jointly with each other.

Seeking refuge, saying the bas-malah and starting the suurah all in one breath without stopping.

- Joining the basmalah and the beginning of the part of Quran.

Seeking refuge then stopping then reciting the basmalah and the beginning of a part of the Quran in a breath.

اَعُوْذُ بِاللّٰهِ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ الرَّجِيْمِ • بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِيْنَ

- Joining seeking refuge with the basmalah then stopping. Then reciting from the holy Quran.

اَعُوْذُ بِاللّٰهِ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ الرَّجِيْمِ بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ • الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِيْنَ

Tarteel and Tadabbur

Tarteel (ترتیل) in proper order" and recitation" is an Arabic word means

:with no haste." As Allah (SWT) said"

[Surah Muzzammil: 4] ﴿وَرَتِّلِ الْقُرْآنَ تَرْتِيْلًا﴾

And recite the Qur'an clearly with tartil (in a distinct and measured tone)²³.

এবং কোরআন আবৃত্তি করুন সুবিন্যস্তভাবে ও স্পষ্টভাবে²⁴।

Here "distinct and measured tone " is tarteel. It is also the term used to define the rules explaining proper recitation of the Qur'an in the manner that Jbriel (A)

²²Thanwi, Ashraf Ali, Jamalul Quran, Page no- ৮

²³Usmani, Mufti Taqi, Quran-e-Karim, Surah Muzzammil - 4, P 967

²⁴ Khan, Mawlana Muhiuddin, Maareful Quran (Bangla), Islamic Foundation, Surah Muzzammil-4

revealed it to Muhammad (PBUH). The interpretation of the above-mentioned verse according to Ibn Kathir :

اقرأه على تهمل، فإنه يكون عوناً على فهم القرآن وتدبره

Tr. "Recite the Quran slowly (making the letters clear), for this is an assistance in understanding and pondering the meaning of the Quran²⁵."

Tarteel requires delivering words according to their makharij, pronouncing them clearly and slowly, and reciting the sentences with understanding.

Tadabbur

Tadabbur means pondering over the meaning of the verses of the Qur'an and contemplating them. It also denotes comprehensive and deep thinking and consideration in order to reach guidance or indications.

Tadabbur means the utmost understanding of the meaning of the words of Allah by reading the Tafseer, deep thinking and consideration over the meanings of the verse and following its guidance fully and completely. So, we can say that Tadabbur cannot be attained (or fulfilled) except by:

- a. Good and correct recitation of the Qur'an,
- b. Correct understanding of the meaning of the words and verses and
- c. Then last by following it.

Undoubtedly, if we understand the meaning and the Tafseer, we will then reflect upon what we read because we will know what Allah wants from us.

The Qur'an itself emphasizes that mere reading or reciting of it is insufficient. One needs to reflect upon what one reads, and then act upon it. Allah (SWT) said

[Surah Saad- 29] ﴿كِتَابٌ أَنْزَلْنَاهُ إِلَيْكَ مُبَارَكٌ لِيَدَّبَّرُوا آيَاتِهِ وَلِيَتَذَكَّرَ أُولُو الْأَلْبَابِ﴾

" This is a blessed Book We have revealed to you so that they deliberate in its verses, and so that the men of understanding may heed to advice²⁶"

²⁵ Ibn Kasir, TafsirulQur'ān il Azim, P8, Surah Muzzammil, Ayat- 4

²⁶ Usmani, Mufti Taqi, Quran-e-Karim, Surah Saad - 29, P 747

“এটি একটি বরকতময় কিতাব, যা আমি আপনার প্রতি বরকত হিসেবে অবতীর্ণ করেছি, যাতে মানুষ এর আয়াসমূহ লক্ষ্য করে এবং বুদ্ধিমানগণ যেন তা অনুধাবন করে।²⁷”

Allah (SWT) also said:

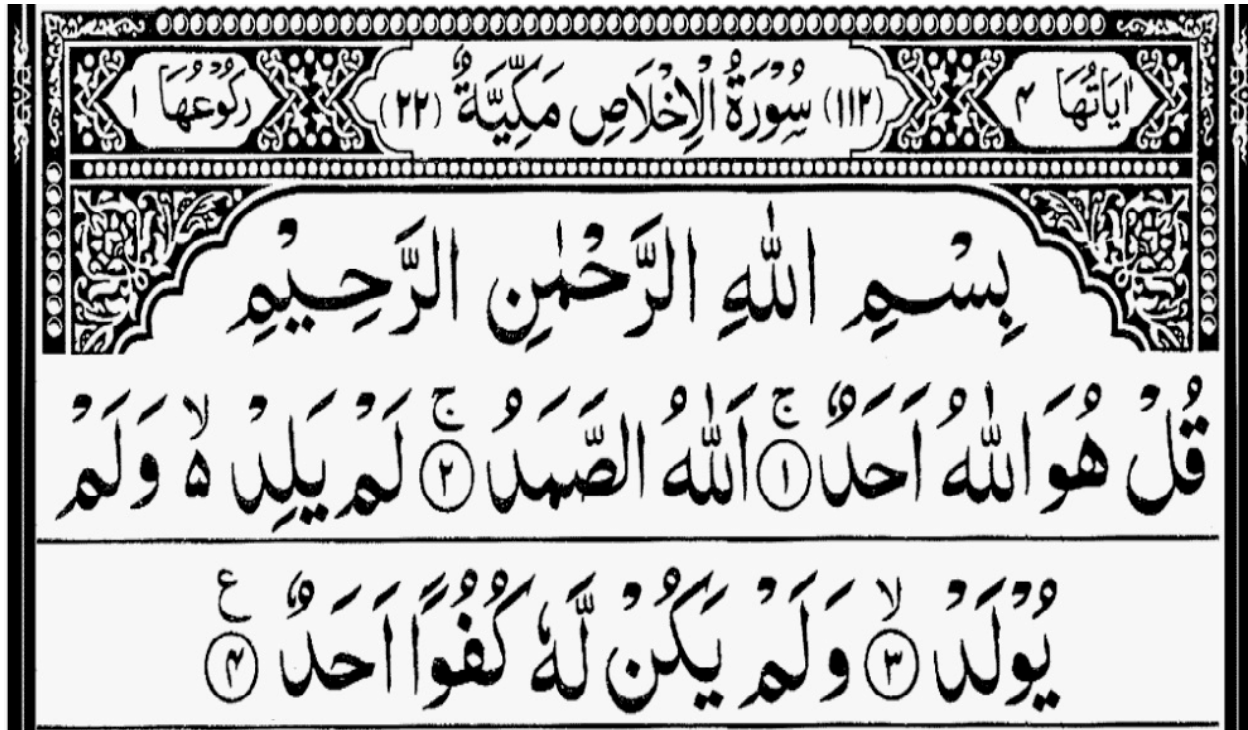

[Surah Muhammad- 24] ﴿أَفَلَا يَتَذَكَّرُونَ الْقُرْآنَ أَمْ عَلَى قُلُوبٍ أَقْفَالُهَا﴾

“Then, do they not give serious thought to the Qur’an, or do they have locks on their hearts?²⁸”.

“তারা কি কুরআন সম্পর্কে গভীর চিন্তা করে না? না তাদের অন্তর তালাবদ্ধ?”

Articulation points of Arabic alphabet

- Classification of the Alphabets on the basis of Makharij and its application
- (i) Al-Jowf (the empty space of the mouth), (ii) Al-Halaq (the throat), (iii) Al-Lisan (the tongue), (iv) Al-Shafatan (the lips), (v) Al-Khayshum (the nasal passage)
- Practice and memorization of suarh al-Lahab
- Exercises on Makharij al-Huruf (articulation of every letter) with examples from four memorized Surahs.
- Recitation (Tilawat) with intonation (Tarteel), Memorization, Translation & Tadabbur (Contemplation) of Surah lahab/Masad.

Arabic letters are not pronounced from a particular part of the articulatory gland, but need the assistance of various glands those are called 'al-makhaarij' (المَخَارِج) in Taj-weed. In the human body, the area of these places is divided into five main sections:

1. Al-jawf (الجَوْفُ): the interior.
2. Al-halq (الحَلْقُ): the throat.
3. Al-lisaan (اللسان): the tongue.
4. Ash-shafataan (الشَّفَتَانُ): the lips.
5. Al-khay-shuum (الخَيْشُومُ): the nasal passage. There are totally seventeen pronunciation places in these five main sections.

Section: 1

The interior. This section includes only one Articulation (Pronunciation place) (makh-raj).

Place: 1

The empty part of the open mouth. The vowel sound of 'ا' ('Alif) pronounced "aa", 'و' (Waaw) pronounced "oo" and 'ي' (Yaa) pronounced "ee" emerge from this place.

Please see the picture below:

Section: 2

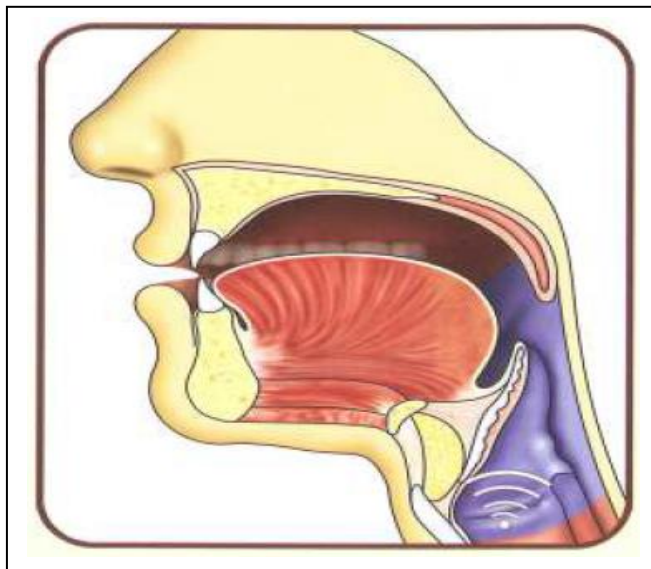

The throat section. This section contains three places (makharij).

Place: 1

The deepest part or bottom of the throat. From this place two letters (‘ء’ Hamzah and ‘هـ’ Haa”) are pronounced.

‘ء’ Hamzah is a click produced by a quick compression of the lower part of the throat which is closest to the chest. e.g. أَء, إء, أُء.

And ‘هـ’ Haa is produced in the back of the throat. e.g. أه, إه, أُه.

Place: 2

The middle of the throat. From this place two letters (‘ع’ Ayn and ‘ح’ Haa’) are pronounced.

'ع' Ayn is a strong guttural produced by compression of air passages deep in the throat. e.g. أع, إع, أع, أع. 'ح' Haa is pronounced with a strong explosion of air from the chest using the middle of the throat e.g. أح, إح, أح, أح

Place: 3

The upper part of the throat. From this place, two letters ('غ' Ghayn and 'خ' Khaa) are pronounced.

'خ' Khaa is a strong continuous guttural produced at the back of the palate e.g. أخ, إخ, أخ, أخ

'غ' Ghayn is pronounced from the part of the throat closest to the mouth e.g. أغ, إغ, أغ, أغ

Section: 3

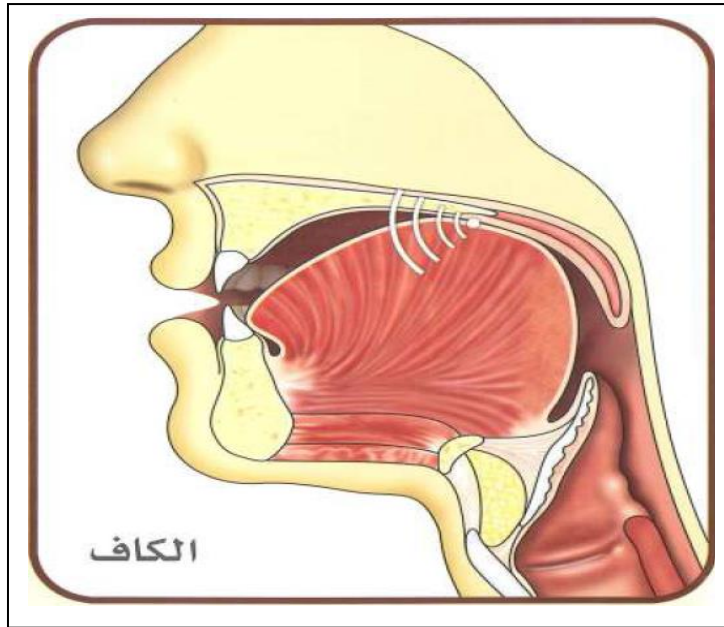

The tongue section: This section contains ten places (makhaarij)

Place: 1 'ق' Qaaf is pronounced when the part of the tongue closest to the epiglottis touches the palate e.g. أَقْ, إقْ, أُقْ.

Place: 2

'ك' Kaaf is pronounced when the part of tongue slightly beyond the epiglottis touches the palate e.g. أَكْ, إكْ, أُكْ.

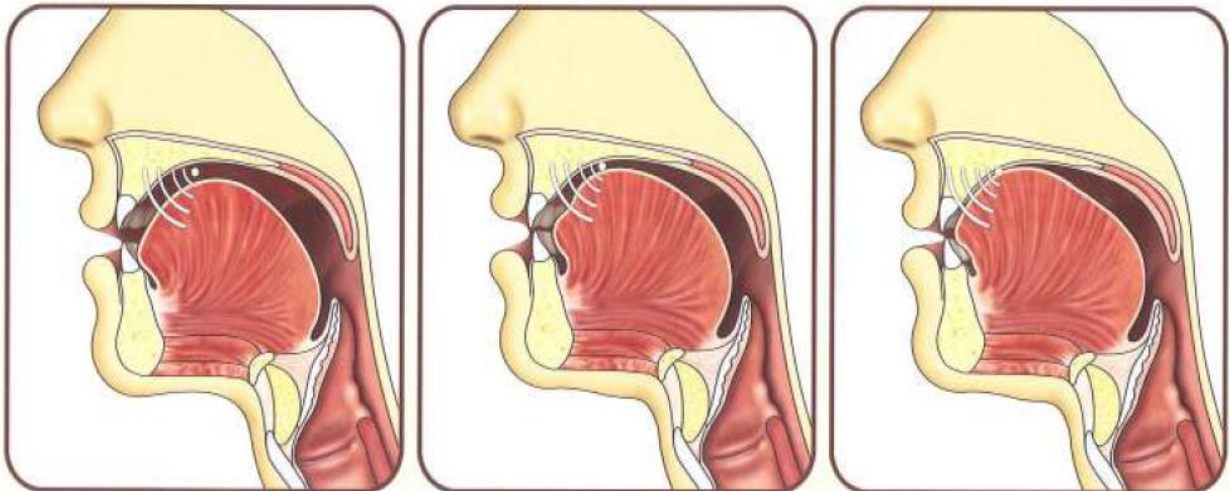

Place: 3

'ج' 'ش' 'ي' these three letters are pronounced when the middle part of tongue touches the palate.

'ج' Jeem is pronounced similarly to the English proper name 'Jim' or the first letter in 'jet' e.g. أَج, إَج, أُج.

- Recitation (Tilawat) with intonation (Tarteel), , Memorization, Translation & Tadabbur (Contemplation) of Suurah al- Kaafiruun /Masad.

الْمَدُّ الْأَصْلِيُّ means the original lengthening. It is a lengthening after one of the six signs of madd and these signs should not be followed by sukun or hamjah. It is lengthened approximately one second long or as long as two vowel counts. It is named original because it is the origin of all mads (lengthens). it is also called الْمَدُّ الطَّبِيعِي and الْمَدُّ الذَّائِقِي

Example: نُوحِيهَا—لَهُ اللَّهُ بِهِ

الْمَدُّ الْبَدَل: It is a madd when a madd sign is preceded by hamzah. It is lengthened approximately one second

Example: آمَنُوا إِيْمَانًا أَوْ تِي

الْمَدُّ اللَّيِّن: means soften .In tajweed it is a mad after 'waw' Sakinah (و) preceded by a fathah and 'ya' sakinah (ي) preceded by a fathah. It is divided into two types:

³⁷Usmani, Mufti Taqi, Quran-e-Karim, Surah Nasr – 1-3, P 1031-1032

1) If a temporary sukun comes after the letter of Lin it's named by "maddlin, arid" (مَدِّ لَيْنٍ عَارِضٌ) e.g. صَيْفٌ, خَوْفٌ. It is lengthened approximately one second long.

2) If a permanent sukun comes after the letter of Lin it's named by "maddlinlazim" (لَيْنٍ لَازِمٌ) e.g. حَمٍ عَسَقٌ, كَهَيْصٍ. It is lengthened approximately two or three seconds long.

المَدُّ الْمُتَّصِلُ: مَدُّ مُتَّصِلٌ means the joined mad(lengthening). It is a lengthening of sound when the hamzah is preceded by any one of the signs/marks of the original madd in same word. It is also called al-mad-dulwaajib (المَدُّ الْوَاجِبُ). It is lengthened approximately three or four seconds long.

Example: جَاءَ جِيئَ سُوءٌ -

المَدُّ الْمُتَفَصِّلُ: مَدُّ مُتَفَصِّلٌ means the separated madd. It is a lengthening of sound when one of the signs \ marks of original madd at the ending of a word and the form of hamzah is at begging of the next word. It is lengthened by approximately three seconds long.

Example: قُوا أَنْفُسَكُمْ بِمَا أَنْزَلَ

المَدُّ الْعَارِضُ: مَدُّ عَارِضٌ means the temporary madd . It is a madd (lengthening) that is followed by a temporary sukun due to waqf (stopping). It may be lengthened as long as one, two or three seconds long.

Example: changing of مُفْلِحُونَ from مُفْلِحُونَ

المَدُّ الْعَوَضُ: means substitute . It is a madd (lengthening) when the fat-hataan on the finishing letter of a word convert to alif in the time of stopping on it. It is lengthened approximately one second long.

Example: عَلِيًّا is changed to عَلِيَّاً

المَدُّ اللَّازِمُ:

مَدُّ لَازِمٌ means compulsory madd. It is a madd, when the permanent sukuun is visible after the signs of madd, and that sukuun remains in all conditions: during waqf and wasl. It is lengthened approximately three or four seconds long. It is divided into four types:

مَدُّ لَازِمٌ حَزْفِيٌّ مُثَقَّلٌ: It is a madd when a shaddah (tasdid) appears after a mark of madd in a letter.

Example: الْمَ طَسَمَ

مَدٌّ لَازِمٌ حَزْفِي مُخَفَّفٌ: It is a madd when a sukuun appears after a mark of madd in a letter.

Example: قَافٍ، صَادٌ، نُونٌ. Spelling: ق. ص. ن

مَدٌّ لَازِمٌ كَلِمِي مُثَقَّلٌ: It is a madd when a shad-dah (tasdid) appears after a mark of madd in a word.

Example: صَوَافٌ، جَانٌّ، دَابَّةٌ، وَلَا الضَّالِّينَ

مَدٌّ لَازِمٌ كَلِمِي مُخَفَّفٌ: It is a madd when a sukuun appears after a mark of madd in a word.

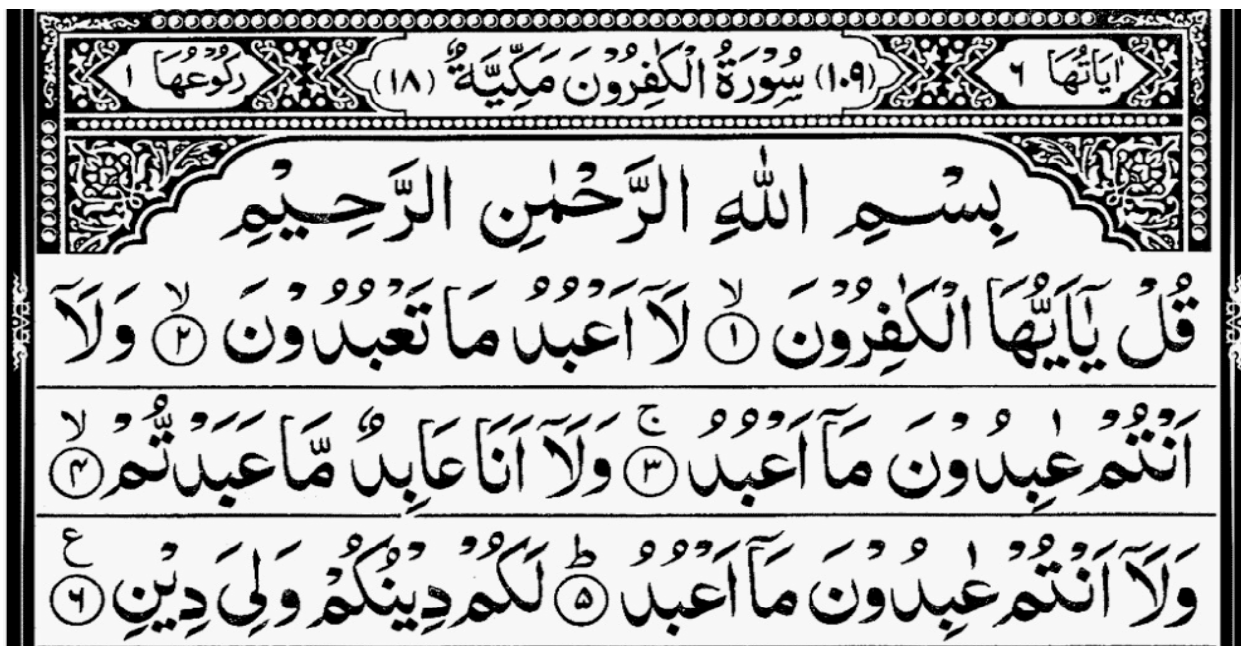

Example: عَالَانٌ، الذَّاكِرِينَ، آلَ اللَّهِ

EXERCISE: Read the following verses keeping in mind the rules of madd 'مَد'

1. طسم (Suurah ash- shu'araa' : v:1)
2. تِلْكَ آيَاتُ الْكِتَابِ الْمُبِينِ (Suurah ash- shu'araa' : v:2)

Session-8 :Taharat or Cleanliness in Islam

- Taharat and Najasaat (الطهارة والنجاسة)
- Importance of Taharah.
- Types of Hadat.
- Ways of Cleaning Najis.
- Recitation (Tilawat) with intonation (Tarteel), Memorization, Translation & Tadabbur (Contemplation) of Surah Al-Kawsar.

Taharat

“Indeed, Allah loves those who are constantly repentant and loves those who purify themselves” [Quran, 2:222]

What is Taharah?

Lexically, taharah means cleanliness and purification⁴².

In Shari'ah, Aṭ Ṭahārah is ceremonial Purification which is divided into two categories:

1. Purification from de jure Filth: It is called de jure Purification.

⁴⁰ Usmani, Mufti Taqi, Quran-e-Karim, Surah Kafirun – 1-6, P 1031

⁴¹ Khan, Mawlana Muhiuddin, Maareful Quran (Bangla), Islamic Foundation, Surah Kafirun – 1-6

⁴² An- Nadwi, Mawlana Shafiqur Rahman, Muassasat-us Sihāfati wan Nashr, Lucknow, India-2012, Simple Fiqh 1, P 13

2. Purification from de facto or real Filth: It is called de facto Purification.

Purification from de jure Filth is obtained by Ablution, Bath, or Tayammum when using water is unfeasible.

Purification from de facto or real Filth is obtained by getting rid of the de facto Filth by using tangible agents of purification like clean water, pure soil, gravel, or by the process of animal-hide-treatment⁴³.

The Importance of Cleanliness in Islam:

Islam gives great importance to cleanliness and renders it an indispensable condition, preliminary and key to certain kinds of worship.

The Prophet states the following in a hadith:

"The key to prayer is taharah, that is, cleanliness, the opening of it is takbir and the complement of it is the salutation⁴⁴."

Cleanliness is a preliminary condition for some kinds of worshipping and an indispensable element of health and hygiene. It is also a means of increase of sustenance. The following is stated in a hadith:

"Keep cleaning yourself and your environment so that your sustenance will be increased."

It will be wrong to regard cleanliness as the cleanliness of the body only. The cleanliness of the heart, good intentions and high ethics are as important as, and even more important than the cleanliness of the body. As a matter of fact, the worship of a person whose intention is not good will not be sincere; therefore, it will not be accepted in the eye of Allah.

Therefore, the cleanliness of the heart and the body must be combined in a Muslim; it should be known that if both of them are kept clean, a person will be a perfect Muslim.

The cleanliness of the body and the heart is the foundation and a basic principle of Islam. As a matter of fact, the Messenger of Allah pointed to these two issues in the following hadith:

"Islam was built on the foundation of cleanliness."

Another hadith reminding us Islam's principle of cleanliness is as follows: "Allah is clean and He likes clean people⁴⁵."

Some hadiths and verses showing how much importance Islam gives to cleanliness are as follows:

"Islam is clean. Then, you need to clean yourselves because only the clean ones will enter Paradise⁴⁶." (Hadith)

"Cleanliness is half of belief.⁴⁷" (Hadith)

⁴⁶ Al-Hindi, Alauddin, KanjulUmmal, Book 9, P 278, Hadith number 26006

"Allah loves those who are most repenting and loves those who keep themselves pure⁴⁸. (al-Baqara, 222)

"Allah does not like to impose a problem on you; He, rather likes to cleanse you and to complete His favour upon you, so that you may be grateful⁴⁹...." (al-Maida, 6)

"And sent down upon you water from the heavens, so that He might purify you with it, and remove from you the impurity of Satan, and so that He might strengthen your hearts and make (your) feet firm therewith...⁵⁰." (al-Anfal, 11)

How Many Types of Cleanliness are there?

Taharah, that is cleanliness, is mainly divided into two:

- 1 - Taharah (Cleanliness) from Najasah.
- 2 - Taharah (Cleanliness) from Hadath.

What does Cleanliness from Najasah Mean?

Material dirt and impurities are called "najasah". The substance that is not clean and is dirty is called "najis". Cleanliness from najasah means cleaning the najis substance on the body or clothes.

Some dirty substances are dirty essentially. Others are actually clean but become dirty due to being polluted by some dirt. We can give urine and clothes polluted by urine as examples. Urine is dirty essentially; a garment is essentially clean, but it becomes dirty due to the urine that smears on it.

What does Cleanliness from Hadath Mean?

Hadath is a state of virtual impurity that prevents a person from performing certain kinds of worship. Lack of wudu, janabah, menstruation and puerperium are examples of hadath. Cleanliness from hadath is possible through making ghusl or wudu.

How Many Types of Hadaths are there?

There are two types of hadaths:

(a) Minor hadath: It is the state of hadath that is eliminated by making wudu. Wudu is invalidated when blood flows from an organ like the mouth and nose, etc; and the state of minor hadath occurs. Wudu is enough to end the state of minor hadath.

(b) Major hadath: It is the state of hadath that occurs due to janabah, menstruation and puerperium

Impurities and Decrees about them:

It is seen in fiqh books that the things that are not regarded as clean but regarded as najis (dirty) are examined in two parts:

- 1 – Heavy Najasah (NajasahGhalizah)
- 2 – Light Najasah (NajasahKhafifah).

⁴⁷ An-Nisaburi, Muslim Ibn Hajjaj, Sahih Muslim, Chapter: The virtue of wudu', Book 2, Hadith 1,

⁴⁸ Usmani, Mufti Taqi, Quran-e-Karim, Surah Baqarah – 222, P 53

⁴⁹ Usmani, Mufti Taqi, Quran-e-Karim, Surah Maeda – 6, P 166

⁵⁰ Usmani, Mufti Taqi, Quran-e-Karim, Surah Anfal – 11, P 277

This differentiation does not depend on whether the dirt is little or much but whether it invalidates the prayer or not.

Whether the dirt is little or much does not matter; they both pollute things. For instance, if a small amount of najasah, whether ghalizah or khafifah, falls into the water, it makes the water dirty. From then on, making wudu with that water will not be valid.

What Things Are Regarded as NajasahGhalizah?

We can list the items that are regarded as najasahghalizah as follows:

1 – Anything that comes out of a human’s body and that necessitates wudu or ghusl: urine, faeces, sperm, madi⁵¹, wadi⁵², blood, purulence, mouthful puke, menstrual blood, puerperal blood and istihadha blood...

According to Shafii and Hanbali madhhabs, the sperm is clean, and it does not make the place that it smears dirty.

2 – The urine, saliva, and faeces of the animals whose flesh is not eaten... However, the faeces of the animals like kite, eagle and sparrow hawk although their flesh is not eaten are regarded as najasahkhafifah.

Only the saliva of the cat among the animals whose flesh is not eaten, and its leftover is regarded as clean. Since the cat is usually together with human beings, and it always touches the things in the house and it licks man’s hand, etc, Allah has not regarded its saliva and mouth as dirty so as not to make life difficult for man. Thus, He made it easy for us. As a matter of fact, the Messenger of Allah said: “The cat is not dirty. It walks around you a lot⁵³.”

3 – The flowing blood of all animals...

4 – The faeces of animal fowls like the chicken, goose, duck and turkey, whose flesh is eaten...

The faeces of birds like the sparrow and pigeon that drop faeces while they are in the air are regarded as clean.

5 – The carcass or carrion called “mayta”, that is, the dead bodies of animals that live on land and that were not slaughtered by the name of Allah and their rawhide...

If an animal has been slaughtered in a way that is not in accordance with the Shariah, it is also regarded as mayta and dirty; its flesh cannot be eaten; for instance, when a person does not utter basmala deliberately while slaughtering the animal. However, if he forgets to utter basmala, there is no problem.

6 – Wine is also regarded as najasahghalizah. All fiqh scholars agree on it. There are three different views about alcoholic drinks other than wine regarding their state of ⁵¹ The fluid that is secreted at the time of sexual foreplay or kissing; it is secreted by both men and women.

⁵² This is a fluid secreted following urination (by some men). It is also known as Al-Wadiyy.

⁵³ As-Sijistani, Abu Daud, Sunan Abi Daud, Chapter: The Water Left By A Cat, Book 1, Hadith 75

najasah. Some scholars regard them as najasahghalizah and some as najasahkhafifah; yet, according to some others, they are clean due to the matter they contain.

It should be paid attention that the disagreement about alcoholic drinks other than wine is about whether their matter is clean or not. All of the scholars agree on the fact that they are haram (forbidden) to drink.

Is it permissible to use alcoholic substances like tincture of iodine, eau de cologne and spirit?

According to those scholars who regard alcoholic drinks other than wine as clean, alcoholic substances like eau de cologne, spirit, and tincture of iodine are clean. It is permissible to use them, that is, to spread them on your body or clothes, to pour them on you, to have them in small bottles on you are permissible. They do not invalidate the prayer.

According to the two decisions made by the Consultation Board of the Presidency of Religious Affairs (of Turkey) in 1943 and in 1948, although it is haram to drink things like spirit and eau de cologne, it is not haram to use them. They do not make the place where they are poured dirty.

“Spirit, beer and similar alcoholic drinks that are not produced from wine cannot be drunk, but it cannot be claimed that they will invalidate the prayer when they are spread on the body or the clothes. Abu Hanifa holds the view that the substance and drops of alcoholic drinks other than wine are not najis.”

According to those who regard alcoholic drinks other than wine as najis (dirty), eau de cologne and spirit are najis, too. Therefore, the places that are wetted by eau de cologne and spirit are regarded as najis. If a place as large as the palm of a hand is wetted by them, one cannot perform a prayer unless those parts are washed. It is not enough for a place wetted by eau de cologne to be clean when the eau de cologne is volatilized by the wind or heat. That part must be washed, just like the place wetted by urine. Even if the place wetted by urine dries, that place is not regarded as clean unless it is washed.

In conclusion, we can say that it is the best way to avoid things like eau de cologne, which are disputable in terms of cleanliness. However, when it is difficult to avoid them, it will be appropriate to think that there are some scholars who say to use spirit and eau de cologne is not haram but permissible and to act accordingly.

What Things Are Regarded as NajasahKhafifah?

1 - The urine and faeces of horses and domestic or wild animals like sheep and deer whose flesh can be eaten... The faeces of mules and donkeys are controversial. There are some scholars who regard them as najasahghalizah and others who regard them as najasahkhafifah.

2 - The faeces of the wild birds like hawks, kites and eagles that shit while flying... We had mentioned that the faeces of the animals like pigeons and sparrows whose flesh can be eaten were clean.

Is it permissible to eat and drink water from the plates or cups of polytheists and People of the Book, who are regarded as najis by the Shari'ah? For it is possible that they cooked pork and boiled wine in them.

It is regarded as permissible to eat and drink water from the plates or cups of polytheists and People of the Book⁵⁴ if it is not obvious that or if we do not know that there was something that Islam prohibited in those plates or cups. It is not permissible to eat from them if it is known that they were dirtied with najasah.

The Messenger of Allah drank water from the water skin of a polytheistic woman. He also ate food from the plates of the People of the Book.

However, it is necessary not to eat and drink from the plates and cups like those unless one has to; for, it is not completely away from karahah.

Ways of Cleaning Najis:

Various ways and methods are used to clean dirty things based on their nature. The main ways of cleaning are as follows:

1 - Cleaning Through Washing with Water:

2 - Cleaning Through Boiling in Water:

3 - Cleaning by Fire:

* Things made of dirty mud like pitchers, glasses, and bowls are cleaned by burning them on fire.

* Cow dung and similar impurities become clean when they are burnt in fire and turn into ash.

4 - Cleaning by Wiping:

* If things like a knife, glass, polished wood, marble and tray are dirtied by wet or dry impurities, they can be cleaned by wiping with a wet cloth, sponge or soil. However, one should feel sure that the impurity has been removed.

* Engraved and embroidered things cannot be cleaned by wiping; they can be cleaned by washing.

5 - Cleaning by Scraping or Rubbing:

* If the sperm that has smeared on the underwear or garment is dry, it can be cleaned by only rubbing without washing. The trace left on the garment after rubbing does not invalidate worshipping. If the sperm that has been smeared on the garment is wet, it will be regarded clean only after it is washed.

The sperm that has stuck on the body is not cleaned by rubbing; the body will be regarded clean only after it is washed.

* If some dirt falls onto frozen fat, the fat is regarded clean after the part on which the dirt fell is scraped and removed.

⁵⁴People of the book means Ahlekitab

6 - Cleaning by Drying and Disappearance of the Trace of the Dirt:

* When the ground and things that are fixed on the ground like trees, grass, etc are dirtied, they are regarded clean when the dirt on them dries. That drying can be through the sun, fire or wind. Praying can be performed on such a place but tayammum cannot be carried out by them because they are clean, but they cannot be used to clean things.

* Dirty soil is regarded clean after sufficient water is poured onto it to remove the dirt or by laying enough clean soil on it to eliminate the smell of the dirt.

7 - Cleaning Through the Flowing of the water or Disappearance of the Water:

* A small puddle (for instance the basin of a bath) into which some dirt has fallen is regarded as clean when clean water is poured into it and the dirty water overflows; in this case, the puddle is regarded like running water.

* A polluted well becomes clean if its water disappears spontaneously or if the well is emptied by drawing its water with buckets.

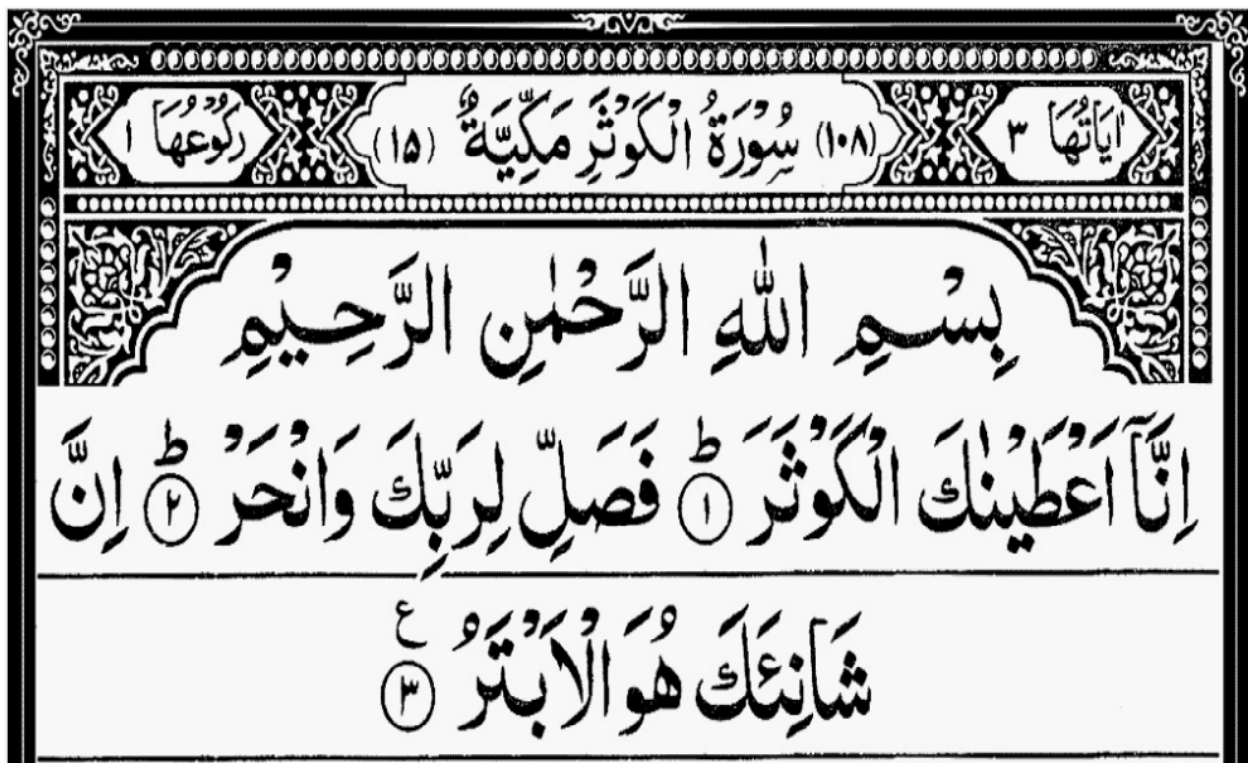

8 - Cleaning Through Changing State:

9 - Cleaning Through

Cutting and Tanning:

لَا يَقْبَلُ اللَّهُ صَلَاةَ أَحَدِكُمْ إِذَا أَحْدَثَ حَتَّى يَتَوَضَّ⁶⁰

Allāh does not accept prayer of anyone of you if he does Hadath (passes wind) till he performs the ablution (anew).

Wuḍū' (Arabic: الوضوء wu-aldū') The literal meaning of the Arabic word Al Wudū is beauty and cleanliness⁶¹.

" Al-Wudu" is the Islamic procedure for cleansing parts of the body, a type of ritual purification, or ablution. The 4 Fardh (Mandatory) acts of Wudu consist of washing the face, and arms, then wiping the head, and finally washing the feet with water.

Wudu is an important part of ritual purity in Islam. It is governed by fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence), which specifies rules concerning hygiene and defines the rituals that constitute it.

It is typically performed during prayers (salah or salat). Activities that invalidate wudu include urination, defecation, flatulence, deep sleep, light bleeding, menstruation, postpartum and sexual intercourse.

Wudu is often translated as 'partial ablution', as opposed to ghusl as 'full ablution' where the whole body is washed. It also contrasts with tayammum ('dry ablution'), which uses sand or dust in place of water, principally due to water scarcity or other harmful effects on the person. Purification of the body and clothes is called taharah.

Basis in The Quran and Hadith:

"Allah loves those who are most repenting and loves those who keep themselves pure⁶². (al-Baqara, 222)

"Cleanliness is half of belief.⁶³" (Hadith)

Description in Hadith:

Wudu in Hadith Abu Hurairah, in reference to the Day of Resurrection, reported that Muhammad, when asked if he would be able to recognize Muslims, said, "Yes, you would have a mark which other people will not have. You would come to me with a white blaze on your foreheads and white marks on your feet because of the traces of ablution⁶⁴."

Abu Hurayra said, "I have heard the prophet (may peace be upon him) say. In a believer adornment would reach the places where ablution reaches⁶⁵."

Uthman stated that Muhammad said, "He who performed ablution well, his sins would come out from his body, even coming out from under his nails⁶⁶."

‘Uqbah b. ‘Amir said: "No one among you does wuḍū’ and does wuḍū’ thoroughly – or adequately – and then testifies, 'There is no god but Allah Alone with no partner and I testify that Muhammad is Allah's Messenger', without the eight doors of the Garden being opened to him so that he can enter by whichever of them he wishes⁶⁷."

Performing Wudu from Large Bodies of Water:

It is mentioned in numerous Hadiths by Ja'far al-Sadiq that it is permissible to make wudu with water that is not overwhelmed with the smell of dead animals. If there is a dead animal, it is recommended to take wudu from the opposite side of the location of the animal. He also said it is permissible to take wudu from the ponds between Mecca and Medina in which people perform ghusl, dogs and beasts drink, and animals die so long as the water level is at least up to the knees⁶⁸.

Performing Wudu from a Well.

It has been narrated by Ali al-Ridha that if a drop of urine, blood or animal faeces falls into a well, one must remove about ten buckets from it before performing wudu. If the faeces has disintegrated into the water, forty to fifty buckets must be removed. Ja'far al-Sadiq has also mentioned that if an animal falls into the well, and has not disintegrated in it, remove five to seven buckets of water from it or until the smell or taste of the water changes. However, If the animal is bleeding or has an open wound, one must draw out thirty to forty buckets before it becomes purified for wudu. If a camel dies in the well or wine is poured into the well, all the water must be drained⁶⁹.

Water requirements

Permitted water types:

- Rain or Sea or river water
- Melted snow or hail
- Water of ocean, lakes or ponds.
- Well water or fountain water⁷⁰

Prohibited water types

- Green water (green water usually means dirty water)
- Water made from any trees or fruits

Mas'alah on Tayammum

Tayammum (Arabic: تيمم) is an Arabic word that means an aim or purpose. Tayammum is derived from "amma," meaning 'to repair.

In Shari'ah, At Tayammum is the method of obtaining Purification through soil intentionally and it consists of wiping the face and the two arms including elbows with a pure earthy substance⁷¹.

In the Quran:

If you are sick, or in travel, or if one of you has come after relieving himself, or you have had to contact with women, and you find no water, go for some clean dust and wipe your faces and hands (with it). Surely, Allah is Most-Pardoning, Most-Forgiving⁷².

Circumstances:

In the following seven circumstances, one has to make Tayammum rather than Wudu (ablution) or ghusl (a ritual bath):

- when access to water is restricted or impractical
- When enough water for ritual washing is not available.
- when using the available water for wudu or ghusl will leave insufficient water for drinking and will put you and your dependents at risk of dying of thirst or illness.
- When obtaining water is hazardous or prohibitively expensive.
- When using water poses a health risk.
- When the water available is impure.
- When you are not allowed to use available water.
- When performing Wudu or Ghusl will make all or part of the time of prayer.

Performing Tayammum:

Finding a piece of ground which is free of najaasah (unclean elements). This could be any kind of ground surface that naturally collects dust like rock or sand.

(Mentally) make niyyah, or intention to make tayammum. Recite the bismillah.

Place your hands on the surface of the ground. Lift your hands and ensure that there is no dust on your palm surface by hitting your hands together. Rub your face with both your hands. The face encompasses the right ear to the left, and the top of the forehead to the bottom of the chin. Rub your hands with one another. The hands must be wiped up to the wrist bone. The same conditions that invalidate wudu also invalidate tayammum. In addition, a person's tayammum is invalidated as and when water becomes available.

⁷² Usmani, Mufti Taqi, Quran-e-Karim, Surah Nisa – 43, P 130

Items on which Tayammum is permitted:

Tayammum is permitted on a clean earth piece, but the ideas about what is inside of this definition or not is depending on madhabs. Some madhabs accept baked earthen pots (unglazed), clay, limestone, the tayammum stone, Taahir (pure) earth, and walls of mud, stone or brick.

Items on which Tayammum is not permitted:

Tayammum is not permitted on things that are not earthen, such as things that burn and turn into ashes or things that can be melted by heat.

Session-10: Gusal in Islam

- What is Gusal?
- Types of Gusal.
- How to perform Gusal.
- Practice on Makhrij, Madd in the previous Surahs.

Ghusl: (Arabic: غسل Gushl,) is an Arabic term for the full-body ritual purification mandatory before the performance of various rituals and prayers, for any adult Muslim after having ejaculation. or completion of the menstrual cycle.

The washing is also required (i.e. it is mustahabb) before Jumu'ah and Eid prayers, before entering the ihram in preparation for Hajj, after having lost consciousness and after formally converting. Sunni Muslims also perform the ablution before Namaz-e-tawbah (Prayer of Repentance).

Ghusl is often translated as "full ablution", as opposed to the "partial ablution" of wudu وضوء that Muslims perform after lesser impurities such as urination, defecation, flatulence, deep sleep, and light bleeding.

Types by purpose:

Ghusl becomes obligatory for several causes, and the ghusl for each of these different causes has different names:

- Ghusl Janabat is ghusl performed after sexual intercourse or ejaculation.
- Ghusl Hayd is following menstruation.
- Ghusl Nifas is following lochia (vaginal discharge after giving birth, which can occur for up to 6 weeks after birth)
- Ghusl Mayyit is ghusl performed on a dead Muslim.
- Ghusal for converting from kufr to Islam.

The acts of ghusl

The Quranic mandate for ghusl comes in Surah an-Nisa:

“O you who believe! Do not go near Salah when you are intoxicated until you know what you say, nor in a state of major impurity’ “, -save when you are traversing away -until you take a bath. If you are sick, or in travel, or if one of you has come after relieving himself, or you have had to contact with women, and you find no water, go for some clean dust and wipe your faces and hands (with it). Surely, Allah is Most-Pardoning, Most-Forgiving”⁷⁶.

The phrase translated as 'intercourse' in this verse has been interpreted by Hanafi scholars to mean sexual contact, while Shafi'i scholars interpret it to mean both physical and sexual contact. Hence, the Hanafi school of thought does not require one to take wudu if there is non-sexual contact with a member of the opposite sex, while the Shafi'i school of thought does require wudu before salah and so on.

Farā'id of Ghusl

There are three faraid⁷⁷ (obligatory) acts. If one of these acts is omitted, it must be returned to and completed before the remaining acts.

- Rinsing the inner mouth
- Sniffing water and blowing it out.
- Washing the entire body.

Traditions of Bathing:

The following acts are Prophet's ﷺ traditions during Bathing, so a Bather should observe them to make his Bathing perfect. The Bather should:

1. say Bismillāh-irRaḥmān-irRaḥīm before starting bathing.
2. should form the intention of Bathing to attain Purification.
3. wash his hands up to his wrists in the beginning as he does during Ablution.
4. should wash off Filth, if present on his body or cloth, before Bathing.
5. should perform Ablution before Bathing. However, he should postpone the washing of feet to the end if he is standing on a low-level land where water collects up.
6. pour down water over his entire body thrice.
7. pour down water first over his head, then over his right shoulder and finally over his right shoulder.
8. scrub his body.

⁷⁶ Usmani, Mufti Taqi, Quran-e-Karim, Surah Nisa – 43, P 130

⁷⁷ An- Nadwi, Mawlana Shafiqur Rahman, Muassasat-us Sihāfati wan Nashr, Lucknow, India-2012, Simple Fiqh 1, P 36

9. wash his body uninterruptedly so that the next organ is washed before the previous dry-up.
10. If the person enters flowing water stays there and scrubs his body, then he has completely performed the Traditions of Bathing.
11. If he enters a waterbody which has the status of flowing water, e.g., a large pond, then also the ruling will be the same as above⁷⁸.
