Objectives of the Courses:

1. To develop awareness among the students about the importance of correct recitation of the Qur'an
2. To give them an idea about the special phonetic system of Arabic in general and that of the Qur'an in particular
3. To develop among them the love for reciting the Qur'an and to encourage them to be in touch with the Qur'an regularly
4. To help them to offer the prayers with standard recitation of the Holy Qur'an and avoid mistakes in reciting the Qur'an.

Session: 1

- A briefing on the course and its importance
- Selection of a class representative
- Testing the students about their knowledge on the Tajweed course in the previous semester.

Session: 2

Errors (اللحن) in Pronunciation:

It is defined as a mistake and deviation from correctness when reading. It is divided into two divisions are: 1. Clear mistakes 2. Unobvious(hidden) mistakes

Clear mistakes

Mistakes in words which are clear and inconspicuous, usually changing the meaning. Mistakes related to correct pronunciation of letters so that letters are not mixed up.

Examples of clear mistakes:

- Changing one letter into another, or a short vowel (harakah) into another, (changing fathah into damma or the letter Qaaf into Kaafetc).
- Not observing the elongations (madd) at all. Reciting them quickly as if there is no madd so that they turn into the length of a vowel.
- Making a madd letter out of a normal harakah.

- Stopping or starting at an incorrect place so that the meaning is spoilt. Like stopping at 'Laailaaha' (There is no God), without completing 'illallaah' (except Allah).

Unobvious mistakes

Mistakes which are to do with perfecting pronunciation and are not obvious. Known only by those who have studied Tajwēd rules or experts in this field. Ordinary Muslims may not know these or perceive these as mistakes.

Examples of Unobvious mistakes:

- Not being totally exact with the elongation of letters: (Making the madd shorter or longer by a 1/2 or even 1/4 degree etc.)
- Not observing the attributes of each letter perfectly: (Slightly rolling the Raa', or exaggerating the 'N' sound in Noon etc.)
- Not observing the rules with which to pronounce letters when they are next to each other (like not merging certain letters that should be merged (Idghaam) and not clearly pronouncing those which should be clearly pronounced (Izhaar) etc.)

The clear mistakes must be avoided by all and to avoid them one must memorise and read attentively and have knowledge of some basic aspects of tajwēd. If a person falls into the clear mistakes, this is considered a sin. As for the unobvious mistakes, then the ruling on them is lighter and the recitation of a person falling into this type of mistake is regarded as lacking in completeness but prayer behind such a person is sound.

Session: 3

The Characteristics of Letters (صفات الحروف)

The characteristics of the letters are what differentiate letters from others that share the same articulation point. If the student of the Qur'an is not applying all the characteristics of the particular letter he/she is articulating, it will sound either like a totally different letter, or will sound incorrect at the very least. The correct application of the characteristics of the Letters makes the letters clearer and teaches the various timings of the saakin letters a very important aspect to good Qur'anic recitation. Studying the Characteristics makes clear which letters are strong in make up and which are weak. From this it is clear that the study of the characteristics of the letters and their application is very important part of tajweed.

Linguistic definition of characteristics:

What serves the purpose of describing the meaning. This can be in the way physical descriptions such as white and black, or can be abstract descriptions such as education.

Applied definition:

The mode of demonstration of the letter when it occurs at its articulation point, which differentiates it from others.

Two Divisions of Characteristics:

1. Intrinsic or Basic Characteristics (الصفات الأصلية)

These are characteristics that are part of the intrinsic makeup of the letter and never the letter. This is what will be discussed in this section.

2. Incidental or Conditional Characteristics (الصفات العرضية)

These are characteristics which are present in a letter in some cases, and not present in the letter in other cases.

Session: 5

Characteristics of letters without opposites (الصفات التي لا ضد لها)

There are seven Characteristics without opposites.

1. The Whistle (الصفير):

Sharpness in the sound of the letter produced from it transversing through a tight passage.

Its letters are three: ص- ز- س

2. The Softness (اللين) :

Emitting the letter from its articulation point with ease without effort from the tongue.

Its letters: (الواو والياء اللينتان and يsakinah before them fatha)

3. The Drifting (الانحراف):

Drifting of the sound of the letter due to the incomplete running caused by the tongue turning from its path.

Its letters: اللام والراء

4. The Repetition (التكرار) :

The light trilling of the tongue when pronouncing the راء due to its tight articulation point. The reciter should be careful not to exaggerate the repetition leading to the occurrence of more than one of the letter راء

Its letter: only راء

5. The Spreading around (التفشي):

Spreading the sound of the letter “Sheen/ش” starting from its articulation point until it collides with the inner plates of the top teeth.

Its letter: only ش

6. The Lengthening (الاستطالة):

It is the pushing of the tongue forward after it collides at its articulation point, and this is due to the influence the compression of sound on it (the tongue), until the tip of the tongue lightly touches the gum line of the two top front incisors.

Its letter: only ض

7. The Nasalization (الغنة):

A nasal sound that is emitted from the nose. This is a required or intrinsic characteristic of the نون and ميم and cannot be separated from these two letters.

Session: 6

General definition and categories of The Velarization(التفخيم) and Attenuation (الترقيق)

The Velarization(التفخيم):

Its linguistic meaning fattening.

It is heaviness (fatness) that enters the body of the letter, so that the mouth is filled with its reverberation.

The method of making a letter have the characteristic of tafkheem is: elevating the posterior tongue to the roof of the mouth (soft paate), creating more space between the roof of the mouth and the bottom of the mouth, and focusing the pressure of the letter to the roof of the mouth.

The Attenuation (الترقيق)

Its linguistic meaning thinners.

It is a thinness that enters the body of the letter, so the mouth is not filled with its reverberation.

The Arabic letters are divided into three groups as to tafkheem and tarqeeq:

1. Letters that always have tafkheem. These are the seven letters in the group.

They are also called حروف التفخيم (the tafkheem letters) خص ضغط قظ

2. Letters which have tafkheem sometimes and tarqeeq other times.

a. الألف المدية The lengthened alif.

b. اللام من لفظ الجلالة The lam in the name of (الله)

c. الراء

3. Letters that always have tarqeeq. This group consists of the rest of the Arabic alphabet.

(٣) وَرَفَعْنَا لَكَ ذِكْرَكَ (٤) فَإِنَّ مَعَ الْعُسْرِ يُسْرًا (٥) إِنَّ مَعَ الْعُسْرِ يُسْرًا

Session: 8

The ra' (راء) and cases of Tafkheem (التفخيم) and Tarqeeq (الترقيق) :
The راء has eight cases in which it has tafkheem , four cases in which it has tarqeeq and two cases that allow either tafkheem or tarqeeq.

The eight cases in which the راء has tafkheem:

1. If it has a fathah (فتحة) , such as in: رَمَضَانَ
2. If it is saakinah and before that is a fathah (فتحة), as in: مَرْقَدَنَا
3. If it is saakinah and the letter before it has a sukoon and the letter before that has a fathah (فتحة) as in: وَالْعَصْرُ

4. If it has a dammah(ضمة) , as in: كَفَرُوا
5. If it has a sukoon, and the letter before it has a dhammah, as in: الْقُرْآنُ
٦. If it is saakinah, preceded by a saakin, preceded by a dhammah, as in: خَسِرَ
7. If isissaakinah and preceded by a conditional kasrah (this is in the hamzah al-wasl). The راء is said with tafkheem when preceded by hamzah al-wasl. as in: لَمَنْ أُرْتَضَى
8. If it is saakinah and before is a kasrah, and after it (الراء) a letter of استعلاء as in: قِرْطَاسٌ، مِرْصَادًا

The four cases in which the راء hastarqeeq:

1. If it has a kasrah, as in: الرِّيحُ، كَرِيمٌ
2. If it is saakinah and a kasrah precedes it and the letter following it is not a letter of استعلاء as in: فِرْعَوْنَ
3. If it is saakinah and the letter before it is saakin and the letter before that has a kasrah. An example of this is: جَزْرٌ (when stopping on this word)
4. If issaakinah and a saakinah precedes it. The راء in this case has tarqeeq, as in: الضَّيِّرُ، خَيْرٌ، ضَيْرٌ (when stopping on these words)

The cases when both tafkheem and tarqeeq are allowed of the راء

1. If the راء saakinah and it is preceded by a kasrah and followed by a letter of the استعلاء letter has a kasrah. There is only one example of this in the Holy Qur'an and that is the word (فِرْق) in verse 63 of سورة الشعراء . The two different ways of reading the راء apply when continuing the reading, not when stopping. When stopping on the word فِرْق the راء has tafkheem, according to the eighth case in which the راء has tafkheem.
2. If the راء issaakinah and it is preceded by a saakin letter, which is preceded by a kasrah, and the saakin letter which precedes the راء , is a letter of the استعلاء group. There are two words in the Qur'an that have these circumstances when stopping on them. They are the words (عَيْنَ الْقَطْرِ) which is in verse 12 of سورة سبأ and the word (مِصْرَ) which is in verse 21 of سورة يوسف and verse 51 of سورة الزخرف . These two words can be read with tafkheem or tarqeeq of the راء when stopping on them.

Session: 9

The Stop (الوقف) and its types

One of the most importance areas in the science of tajweed is knowledge of الوقف (the stop and the start). The understanding of the Qur'an cannot be realized nor comprehension of his meaning be achieved without this knowledge. The stop is the ornament of tilaawah, beauty of the reciter, announcement of the succeeding, understanding for the listener, pride of the scholar, and through it one knows the difference between two different meanings.

The linguistics definition of the stop: Halt and imprisonment.

Its applied definition: Cutting of the sound at the end of a word, usually for the period of time of breathing, with the intention of return to the recitation, not with the intention of abandoning the recital.

- The stop can be at the end of a verse, or in the middle of a verse.
- It can never be in the middle of the word, or in between two words that are joined in writing such as stopping on “أن” when written as a joined phrase “ألن” in the verse.

Types of the stop:

There are three types of the stop:

1. The optional stop (الوقف الاختياري): This is what was intended by the reciter by his own choice, without any outside reasons.

It is divided into four categories:

* Complete (تام): It is the stop on an utterance complete in meaning and not attached to what follows it in grammatical expression or in meaning.

Its rule: It is best to stop on it, and then start on what follows it. This category of وقف is usually found at the end of an ayah, the end of each surah, and at the completion of stories in the Glorious Qur'an. Such as an: الحمد لله رب العالمين

* Sufficient (كاف): It is stop on an utterance that is complete in meaning. And is attached to what follows it in meaning but not in grammar. It can be at the end of an aayat, or in a middle of an ayah. It is called sufficient due to its lack of attachment grammatically to what follows even though it is attached in meaning.

Its rule: It is advisable to stop on it and start with that which follows, just as in the complete stop. Such stopping on the word (ينفقون) in the following verses:

الَّذِينَ يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْغَيْبِ وَيُقِيمُونَ الصَّلَاةَ وَمِمَّا رَزَقْنَاهُمْ يُنْفِقُونَ (٣) وَالَّذِينَ يُؤْمِنُونَ بِمَا أُنزِلَ إِلَيْكَ

* Good (حسن): It is the stop on an utterance, complete in its meaning, but is attached to what follows it grammatically and in meaning. It can be found at the end of an ayah or in the middle of an ayah, just as the other stops. It is called حسن or good due to the fact that stopping on it leads to understanding of a meaning.

Its rule: it is good to stop on it but not good to start on what follows it, due to its attachment to what follows grammatically and in meaning. An exception to this would be the end of an ayah. Stopping on the end of an ayah is Sunnah.

* Repulsive (قبيح): It is the stop on what does not give a correct meaning and that is due to its strong attachment to what follows in grammar and in meaning. It would be repulsive if one stopped on the adjective without the noun, such as in: ذِكْرُ رَحْمَةِ رَبِّكَ عَبْدَهُ زَكَرِيَّا

Stopping on a word signifying the opposite of what Allah (swt) wants:

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَقْرُبُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَأَنْتُمْ سُكَارَى

Its rule: These stops and those similar to them are not allowed intentionally, except when compelled such as in shortness of breath, sneezing or forgetting. After the state that compelled the stop has elapsed, the reader then must repeat one, two or more words as necessary to convey the correct and sound meaning.

2. The compelled stop: This is what comes forth to the reader as a compelling reason for stopping such as shortness of breath, sneezing, coughing, disability, forgetfulness, and whatever is similar to these causes.

3. The test stop (الوقف الاختباري): This is what is required of the student when being examined or taught by a teacher.

Some scholars add a fourth division of stopping called the waiting stop (الوقف الانتظاري).

This stop is when the reader stops at a word that has more than one way of recitation with the intention of resuming with the other way, when reading by combining all of the ways of recitation while being taught by or presenting the reading to a sheikh.

Last three verses from Surah al Hasar:

هُوَ اللَّهُ الَّذِي لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ عَالِمُ الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ هُوَ الرَّحْمَنُ الرَّحِيمُ (٢٢)
هُوَ اللَّهُ الَّذِي لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْمَلِكُ الْقُدُّوسُ السَّلَامُ الْمُؤْمِنُ الْمُهَيَّمِنُ الْعَزِيزُ
الْجَبَّارُ الْمُتَكَبِّرُ سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ (٢٣) هُوَ اللَّهُ الْخَالِقُ الْبَارِئُ
الْمُصَوِّرُ لَهُ الْأَسْمَاءُ الْحُسْنَى يُسَبِّحُ لَهُ مَا فِي السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ
الْحَكِيمُ (٢٤)

Translation:

Eid Salah method (صلاة العيدين)

Eid Salah is a special prayer that comes end of Ramadan on the day of Eidul-Fitr and the sacrifice of Prophet Ibrahim on the day of Eidul-Adha. Muslims all around the world perform this salah twice a year, and the method is different from the daily prayers. It consists of two rak'ahs (units of prayer). It's part of the sunnah for this prayer to be offered in an open space, like a large field, rather than in a mosque. All male Muslims are required to perform Eid Salah, and female Muslims are encouraged to attend, though they must observe hijab and other mosque ordinances.

Step-1: Make an intention of doing two Rakat behind the Imam for Eid prayer along with six additional Takbirs.

The First Rak'ah

Step-2: After the Imam has said "Allahu Akbar" the first time, you should raise your hands and follow. This is the first Takbir of the prayer.

Step-3: Say the opening supplication quietly to yourself.

Step-4: There will be 3 Takbirs before the Imam starts reciting Quran. Each time the Imam says "Allahu Akbar", you should follow by raising your hands, then putting them on your sides. After the third Takbir, the Imam will begin reciting the Quran. At that point, you should put your hands below the navel, with your right hand on top of the left.

Step-5: Listen to the recitation of the Holy Quran. The Imam will recite Surah Al Fatiha (the first Surah of the Quran) and then another Surah.

Step-6: When the Imam says "Allahu Akbar" go into Ruku (the bowing position).

Step-7: Stand up straight when he says Sami AllahulimanHamidah (Allah hears those who praise Him), and say "RabbanalalakalHamd" (our Lord praise be to You) in a low voice.

Step-8: When the Imam says "Allahu Akbar" go into Sujud (prostration). You will do two prostrations as in normal prayer.

The Second Rak'ah

Step-9: The Imam will first recite from the Holy Quran (first Surah Al Fatiha and another Surah).

Step-10: After the recitation, before going into Ruku, there will be 3 Takbirs. Follow the Imam. Raise your hands after each "Allahu Akbar". After the third Takbir, go into Ruku (the bowing position).

Step-11: Stand up straight when the Imam says Sami Allah hulimanHamidah, and say "RabbanalakalHamd" in a low voice.

Step-12: When the Imam says "Allahu Akbar" go into Sujud. You will do two prostrations.

Step-13: After this, you sit for the complete Tashshahud.

Step-14: After the Imam ends the prayer by turning to his face to the right first and saying "AssalamualaikumwaRahmatullah" and then to his left and doing the same, you should follow.

Step-15: Do not get up right away. The Imam will give a short Khutbah (speech). Please stay still and listen. It is recommended to do so.

How to perform SalatJanaza:

In SallatulJanaza there are two acts that are held as being compulsory. These are:

1. Saying the takbeer (Allahu Akbar) four times.
2. Qiyam, that is offering the SalatJanaza in a standing posture.

In the Janaza Salah, there is no Azaan, Iqaamah, Ruku, Sajadah, Qadah (sitting position in salah)

SalatulJanaza is not obligator each one. Even if one person performs this salah, then the obligation will be fulfilled.

Method of SalatJanaza

The manner of performing this Salah is as follows:

1. The body of the deceased must be placed in front of the Imam who leads the Salah. The Imam stands on line with the chest of the deceased.
2. Everyone in the congregation must have the intention of performing SalatJanaza for the sake of Allah and in prayer for the deceased.
3. One must then say Allahu Akbar while raising both hands as in Takbbeer at Tahreema (the same manner in which one raises his hands to begin the daily salah)

4. Then fold your hands over the navel as one does in his daily salah. At this time one must recite Hamd/Thana. There are...

سُبْحَانَكَ اللَّهُمَّ وَبِحَمْدِكَ، وَتَبَارَكَ اسْمُكَ، وَتَعَالَى جَدُّكَ، وَجَلَّ ثَنَاءُكَ وَلَا إِلَهَ غَيْرُكَ.

5. After this, a person must say Allahu Akbar again, but must not raise his hands. At this time, one will recite the Darood, (preferably the same as recited in the daily Salah).

اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ، اللَّهُمَّ بَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ.

6. Then say Allahu Akbar once again without raising the hands. After this takbeer, one will make the dua for the deceased based on who the deceased is, one will recite the relevant dua. There is a special dua for adults and one for a minor boy and another for a minor girl.

The dua for adult is اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِحَيِّنَا وَمَيِّتِنَا وَشَاهِدِنَا وَغَائِبِنَا وَصَغِيرِنَا وَكَبِيرِنَا وَذَكَرِنَا وَأُنْثَانَا اللَّهُمَّ مَنْ أَحْيَيْتَهُ مِنَّا فَأَحْيِهِ عَلَى الْإِسْلَامِ وَمَنْ تَوَفَّيْتَهُ مِنَّا فَتَوَفَّهُ عَلَى الْإِيمَانِ اللَّهُمَّ لَا تَحْرِمْنَا أَجْرَهُ وَلَا تُضِلَّنَا بَعْدَهُ.

The dua for a boy child is:

اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْهُ لَنَا فَرَطًا وَاجْعَلْهُ لَنَا أَجْرًا وَذُخْرًا وَاجْعَلْهُ لَنَا شَافِعًا وَمُشَفَّعًا

The dua for a gir child is:

اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْهَا لَنَا فَرَطًا وَاجْعَلْهَا لَنَا أَجْرًا وَذُخْرًا وَاجْعَلْهَا لَنَا شَافِعَةً وَمُشَفَّعَةً

7. Then say Allahu Akbar once again without raising the hands. After this takbeer, say AssalmuAlaykumwarahmatullah.

Types of Voluntary Prayers (صلاة التطوع)

The first thing to understand is the difference between what is known as fard and what is known as nafl. Fard is obligatory, it is what Allah requires us to do, and leaving it is a sin and we will be held accountable for it. An example is two rakah of Fajr prayer.

Nafl literally means ‘extra’. Nafl worship is not required from a Muslim, rather it is up to the individual to offer it. It is optional and voluntary. The Muslim is not sinful for neglecting nafl, but is rewarded for doing it. Therefore, nafl worship is recommended. Examples of nafl prayers will be covered in this lesson.

As-Sunanar-Rawatib (often simply referred to as ‘Sunnah prayers’)

They are voluntary prayers that are associated with the obligatory prayers and have a specific order and number. The ones often prayed are listed below:

Name of Prayer	Rakah of Fard Prayer	Rakah of ‘ Sunnah Prayer’ Before Fard	Rakah of ‘ Sunnah Prayer’ After Fard
Fajr	2	2
Dhuhr	4	4 (2+2)	2
Asr	4
Magrib	3		2
Isha	4		2

The Messenger of Allah said: “Whoever prays twelve rakah during the day and night will have a house built for him in Paradise: four rakah before Dhuhr and two after it, two rakah after Maghrib, two rakah after Isha, and two rakah before Fajr.” (Tirmidhi)

The Prophet said about the two rakah before the obligatory Fajr prayer, “They are dearer to me than the whole world.” (Saheeh Muslim)

“The Prophet never left praying four rakah before Dhuhr and two rakah before Fajr under any circumstances.” (Saheeh Al-Bukhari)

The prayer after wudu:

The Prophet’s Companion, Bilal, established the voluntary prayer after wudu’. Whenever he performed wudu’, Bilal would offer a two rak’a prayer that came to be known as the two rak’a of wudu’. The prayer’s meritoriousness is evident from the hadith narrated by Abu Huraira who said that the Messenger of Allah [peace and blessings be upon him] once asked Bilal, “O Bilal! Tell me what deed have you done in Islam through which you hope to receive Allah’s mercy for I heard the sound of your footfall in Paradise!” Bilal replied, “Every time I performed wudu’ by day or night, I would pray with that purification as much as Allah has destined for me.”

Tahiyya-tul-Masjid* (Prayer for Entering the Mosque)

It is a prayer in which two nafl rakah are performed at the time of entering the mosque. The Messenger said, “If anyone of you enters a mosque, he should pray two rakah before sitting.” (Saheeh Al-Bukhari)

Salat at-Tawba* (Prayer of Repentance)

Allah’s Messenger said, “There is no man who, upon committing a sin, purifies himself and performs two rakah, then asks for forgiveness from Allah, but Allah forgives him” (Abu Daud, Tirmidhi, IbnMajah)

Ishraq prayer:

The word ‘Ishraq’ means rising or being enlightened. According to Islamic Shariyah, the post-sunrise prayer that is performed at the time when the full light is dispersed after sunrise is called Ishraq prayer. According to Hadith Qudsy (Sayings of Allah that is revealed to the prophet and the prophet narrated it by his own words), whoever offers four Rakat Ishraq prayer at the beginning of the day, his daily needs will be fulfilled by Allah (SWT). Uqbah Ibn Amir (Ra) reported that Rasulullah (PBUH) said, “Verily Allah (SWT) says, ‘O Son of Adam, suffice me [by offering] four Rakahs of prayer at the beginning of the day, I will suffice for you [your needs] till the end of the day in exchange of those four Rakahs.’” (Musnad Ahmad). According to another Hadith, one who prays Ishraq, he will receive the reward of one complete Hajj and one complete Umrah.

Duha Prayer:

This prayer is also known as Chasht salah. It is performed after the sun has risen high in the morning, after about one-third of the day has passed and it lasts until zawal. One may perform 2, 4, 6, 8, 10 or 12 rakat of nafl.

A'isha (رضي الله عنها) was asked how much the Prophet (ﷺ) used to pray for the Duha prayer. She said, “Four rakat or he increased it as Allah willed.” [Muslim] The Prophet (ﷺ) was reported as saying, “Whoever prays 12 rakat for the Duha prayer, Allah will built a golden castle for him in Paradise.” [Tirmidhi, IbnMajah]

Salat al-Awwabin:

Awwabin is the plural of Awwab and this refers to the one who is obedient, or one who turns to obedience.

After performing the Fardh and Sunnah of Maghrib, one may perform from 6 to a maximum of 20 rakat nafl, in sets of 2 units. This prayer has been called as Awwabin. The Prophet (ﷺ) said, "Whoever prays, after the Maghrib, 6 rakat without talking of anything indecent in between them, it would be equivalent to 12 years of worship for him." [Tirmidhi]

Salat at-Tahajjud(Qiyamul-Layl):

The prayer which is offered in the middle of the night, known as Tahajjud or Salat al-Layl, is the most rewarding and beneficial. Salat at-Tahajjud is offered after Isha prayer but before Fajr prayer. The number of rakat prayed in tahajjud should be between 4 to 12 rakats, offered in even numbers, in units of two or four rakat each.

It is best to wake up in the middle of the night to perform the Tahajjud. However, if one is not sure that one will be able to do so, then one can pray 4 rakat right after the 2 sunnah mu'akkadah of Isha with the intention (niyyah) of tahajjud. The Prophet (ﷺ) said, "The best (most rewarding) salah after the obligatory salah is the night prayer (salat at-tahajjud)" [Ahmad and Muslim]. Salman al-Farsi (رضي الله عنه) quoted the Prophet (ﷺ) as saying: "Observe the night prayer, it was the practice of the righteous before you and it brings you closer to your Lord and it is penance for evil deeds and erases the sins and repels disease from the body."

Salat al-Istikhara (Prayer for asking for Guidance/Advice):

This prayer requires 2 units with the intention to ask Allah for guidance in a matter. According to a traditional report transmitted on the authority of Muhammad ibn al-Munkadir, it was Jabir ibn 'Abdillah (رضي الله عنه) who said: "Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) used to teach us how to seek guidance in choosing the best option available in a practical enterprise [Al-istikharafi'l-amr], just as he would sometimes teach us a Chapter (Surah) from the Qur'an: 'If one of you is concerned about some practical undertaking, or about making plans for a journey, he should perform two cycles of ritual prayer [rak'atain], not as an obligatory observance [farida], but voluntarily.

Salat al-Hajat (Prayer for the fulfillment of a need):

Salat al-Hajah is a prayer offered if one wants Allah Almighty to fulfill his particular purpose or need or want. It consists of a fresh ablution done carefully, followed by a calm prayer in the order of between 4 to 12 units of prayer, then a sincere supplication that states what one wishes to be accomplished and requesting Allah's help in its accomplishment. Abu Darda (رضي الله عنه) relates that the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said, "Whoever performs ablutions well and offers two voluntary rakahs and completes them to perfection will be granted by God whatever he prays for, either immediately or in God's good time." [Ahmad - Sahih]

Salat at-Tauba (Prayer for Repentance)

Make the appropriate minor or major ablution, offer a prayer of two rak'ats, and ask for His forgiveness. Abu Bakr (رضي الله عنه) related from the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) that he said, "There is no one who commits a sin, goes and performs ritual ablutions, and then prays two rakats after which they seek Allah's forgiveness except that He forgives them."

This has been related by Abu Dawud and Tirmidhi in their respective Sunan, and the scholars declared it to be a recommended prayer. [Al-Mughni 1/348, Radd al-Muhtar 2/28]

Salat al-Khawf (Prayer of Fear/Danger)

The word "Khawf" means fear. Salat al-Khawf is a type of prayer that is prayed during time of fear. This prayer was performed by the Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) in the battle of Uhud. Salat al-Khawf is usually performed in place of normal prayer in the battlefield. When fear is severe, the Imam divides the people into two groups: one group [who remain] facing the enemy and one group [who stand] behind him. Then, he prays with this [latter] group one rak'ah with 2 sajdah. Then, when he raises his head from the second sajdah, this group goes back to face the enemy, and the [other] group comes [to take their place].

The imam leads them in one rak'ah with two sajdah, and then performs tashahud and taslim. [The followers] do not perform taslim, but [rather] go to face the enemy. The first group [now] comes [back], and pray one rak'ah on their own, with two sajdah, without recitation, and then perform tashahud and taslim, and then go back to face the enemy. The other group [now] comes [back] and pray one rak'ah with two sajdah, with recitation, and [then] perform tashahud and taslim. (Mukhtasar al-Quduri)

Salat al-Istisqa`

The Istisqa` prayer is a state-organized prayer. The leader calls upon the people to fast for three days and then to assemble for the prayer and beseech Allah for rain and forgiveness. The Istisqa` prayer consists of two rak'as followed by one or more sermons.

Salatul-Khusuf and salatul-Kusuf:

The Khusuf and Kusuf prayer are not performed except when there is a partial or total eclipse of the moon or sun. Solar and lunar eclipses are natural phenomena and do not occur because of the death or birth of any person. When a solar eclipse coincided with the death of Ibrahim, the Messenger's son, he said, "The sun and the moon do not eclipse because of anyone's death or birth but they are two of the signs of Allah which He reveals to His servants. So, when you see them, resort to prayer." The eclipse prayer is a two-rak'a prayer that is observed either individually or in a group. Each rak'a comprises standing twice, reciting surat al-Fatiha and another sura or some other verses twice, bowing twice, and prostrating twice. After the prayer, the imam delivers a sermon urging the people to repent and do good deeds.
